War On Retail - March 5, 2018, 4:24 pm

EDIT: THERE WAS AN ISSUE WITH SOME OF THE CODES MADE THE PROBLEM WAS WITH THE EMAILS USED TO MAKE THE ACCOUNTS. i AM ISSUING EITHER A REFUND OR A REPLACEMENT CODE FOR ALL PURCHASES FROM TODAY. rEPLACEMENT CODES CAN TAKE UP TO 48 HOURS. Sorry for the issue guys but rest assure I am working on it as we speak. I have already given out some working codes as replacements for some of you. I am about out of the codes I made two days ago so anyone who does get one can wait or get a refund. I am also closing down sales for a few days to make sure this was just because of the fake emails used and not a new update patch

The balance means you will get that amount off per gallon up to 20 gallons if there is some of the balance left over you can use it again to get whats left off on next fill up for up to another 20 gallons

Check some of my other or older threads for vouches if you want to see vouches.

If you need help to exchange your paypal to crypto here is who I use:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5752623>

Due to circumstances I am long longer giving an exiration date on codes. I will Now be selling codes with a 24-48 hour warranty. Because of this I will now be making lower amount codes and they will be cheaper than $25 so a lot of you will be happy.

I will update thread when I get more. Enjoy the Discount Gas guys!

Beznia - March 5, 2018, 4:33 pm

When do these accounts expire?

connquerxo - March 5, 2018, 4:34 pm

Would you do $20? That's high man...

War On Retail - March 5, 2018, 4:39 pm

All codes expire at teh end of May

Sorry I only get a so many codes and demand is high on these. I always sell out within an hour of sales

If you guys want cheaper codes I also sell $0.20 off per gallon codes I will restock those tomorrow or the next day

Galaxias - March 5, 2018, 4:59 pm

No one is going to buy this for $30 on this forum, and NOT everyone has a 20 gallon tank car rofl.

Baws - March 5, 2018, 5:04 pm

Gas is $3.46 here is in Cali lol.

War On Retail - March 6, 2018, 5:06 pm

I can vouch, I also live in Cali and $3.46 is for regular not premium

CanisMajoris - March 6, 2018, 5:14 pm

If you ever make any $2-3 dollars ones at a lower price, lmk and ill pick a few up. Gas is only $2.25 here, so these are not really worth it for me unfortunately. But i appreciate the service you provide here!

You do realise you can use the full amount on the accounts right? I mean if gas cost you only $2.25 then lets say you bought a $8.10 code. you would do 1 fill up for free basically then you would still have $5.85 left on the code to use again. do it once more for another 20 gallons of gas and you will have $3.60 left on the code. just keep doing fill ups until there is no more money on the code. This would be cheaper than buying $2.50 codes at $15 each you still save. I hope you understand why these codes are more valuable now and why we are making them with such a hgih balance. buy one code and you wont need to buy a bunch of codes and pay more.

Ooh, I didnt realize that. Thanks for the explanation!

So let me make sure I understand this, lets assume that the code is for $8 and gas here is $2

First fillup gets me basically free gas (I know it usually ends up being a few cents when you use this code) now my code has $6 on it, second fillup gets me basically free gas again, now the code has $4 on it, third fillup is the same, code now has $2 on it fourth fillup is last basically free fillup, now the code is depleted.

Now you get it =). Sadly a little late lol all codes were sold I think but you can double check. I will have more tomorrow

bboyrican - March 6, 2018, 5:28 pm

Are codes re-useable now? I have purchased some before in the past and the balances were not there after the first use. Im asking this as it would be worth it since gas here is barely over $2... but if they arent. Then its not worth it as it takes $30 to fill up my car.

Edit: Just seen u gave someone that info. Thank you. For sure worth it at that point lol.

In my own experience, codes have always been reusable.

War On Retail - March 7, 2018, 5:11 pm

Just added more codes guys get them while you can. =) Enjoy!

You can always go to someone in the currency section and get it exchanged. In fact I link someone I personally use in the thread.

CanisMajoris - March 7, 2018, 6:33 pm

picked one of the $25 dollar ones up, wish bittrex's ETH fee wasnt so much, cost another $5 to send it. For future payments, is there a cheaper way to do it?

WRX - March 7, 2018, 6:35 pm

I still don't understand the cost. I get they are reusable but it's kind of dumb since it doesn't take you more work to do this method.

GLWS lemme know if you're willing to sell some for cheaper

Yes there is. Dont use bittrex. get a stand alone wallet or something. I am sorry but I have to pay fee;s when I send it to my exchange wallet too so I know how you feel.

I will be getting cheaper codes in a day or two. they will have a balance of around $2.40-$3 and they will cost $15 sounds good, ill look into it. I think you can buy them in coinbase, move it to gdax for free, and then send it from gdax for free, but I wanted to get one before they sold out. so didnt have time this go around.

My payment is pending btw, hopefully will go through soon, thought ETH was supposed to be nearly instant lol

War On Retail - March 8, 2018, 9:47 am

You got it figured out =) I will be updating thread later with my other codes so keep an eye out

CanisMajoris - March 8, 2018, 9:49 am

Thanks, eth transfer finally went through (I made a mistake on my end) but now that I fixed that, my code was delivered. Gonna use up a bit more gas so I am closer to that 20 gallon mark, and will report back with a vouch when I use it. Thanks for being patient and answering my questions OP!

You are most welcome! I seen the transaction so i took it off the thread for you so no one else would buy it while yours was being processed

Microsoft Agent #3180 - March 8, 2018, 10:59 am

The price is kinda high. The problem for most people that just drive cars is you have a 10-12 gallon tank you don't benefit a whole lot at this rate. Lmk if you can do one for less

Sorry I only get so many of these per day. I would suggest getting fuel tanks or something for the exxxcess fuel. But otherwise you can speak with Adi abotu purchasing specific amounts in bulk on his thread.

WRX - March 8, 2018, 12:59 pm

If you can get ones with $3.35 ish off for $15 let me know I'll buy.

Adi takes car of bulk orders but I do have three $8 codes left right now and should have 5 or so more later today but I did offer them to someone else already. If they do not still get them then I will contact you about them.
