Thread: Biggy - Potential Multi Accounter UID: 3725052

Hydraxus - March 5, 2018, 5:28 pm

So first of all, before I begin this thread... Biggy... If you're reading this. I already know a neg is incoming. Why? Well, I guess you think you're top shit just because you're Ub3r. Not even that, it's because you think you're better than everyone else. Whether you are indeed a multi or not, after reading this thread, you might understand why I along with several other individuals are thinking the way we are thinking.

Originally, you seemed like a rather chill individual. Interesting, but chill. But after speaking with a couple others, it seems as if the so called "glory" on HackForums has got to you. Don't think you're better than others.

Now first of all, let me make this clear that there is no rock hard solid evidence if that is what anyone reading this thread is looking for. But I, along with a couple other individuals believe Biggy is for certain a multi accounter. And well, multi accounters always get exposed one way or another.

So let's first talk about Biggy's current profile status. He joined October of 2017 and has:684 reputation. In my opinion, not that bad. Reputation is easily obtained, and even the most repped users could easily be a scammer. Take Black Shadow for an example. A meme of the past. Although he's different than Biggy in this case because he technically didn't scam, he just wrote absolute shit eBooks.

Ub3r member. Also not bad at all.

2 sticky awards. This is where it kinda gets a bit interesting. I've never seen a user earn not one, but TWO sticky awards so quickly. Honestly, I don't mind if people attempt to contribute to HackForums, props to them actually, but 2 sticky awards within less than a year joined on HF, let alone 6 months? Seems quite odd if you ask me.

User has a middleman service. This isn't fishy at all. User joined October of 2017, and January of 2018 decided to make a thread to "help" minimize the number of deal disputes. Seriously? Who are you kidding? And why do you have to explain why you're trusted? The fact that you're a leader of a group doesn't mean anything, you're providing reasons a scammer would. Look at Bandors for christ sake.

User is in the Writ3rs group. I respect the Writ3rs with and all they do with all my heart, but why in the world would you accept Biggy out of all people? From what I've heard, his work for the group is subpar. From my perspective, I haven't seen much work done by him, and I feel as if he's only sitting in the group simply for the userbar.

User is the leader of a group. Within 4 months of joining HackForums, this user has 684 reputation, is Ub3r, has 2 sticky awards, has a middleman service with people vouching that he is "HQ and trustworthy," is in Writ3rs, and owns a group? If that doesn't ring any bells, it should. Either Biggy somehow hacked HF and put some steroids on it to speed up the HF journey or he's a multi. It's as simple as that.

Biggy is potentially a multi of: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3296809>

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3116832> (Because apparently every multi is Kaspah / Ariana).

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2719935>

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3017940>

My main guess would be Joseph Gordon-Levit. His last visit was approximately September 10th, less than one month before Biggy's join date on October 2nd. Now that might just be one coincidence. Here's another, they both sell stat IG accounts. But there's more than just that, because that would be an absurd coincidence.

Their thread titles, are almost identical: <https://gyazo.com/90b8a208287d0b9fa0a776e71350c494>

<https://gyazo.com/7cebd0febc4fd594b388cb262d0fcb18>

Like I said, I don't have any solid evidence that Biggy is any of these users, HOWEVER... I'm pretty sure it's clear that Biggy is a multi. And often in times, multi accounters who aren't upfront about it are scammers who were banned in the past. Oh, also if you happen to find more information about him, feel free to let me know. I've been searching for the past two hours, seems like Biggy covered his tracks quite well.

What I believe is that Biggy is planning some sort of large exit scam. Think about it, he says that his HF account is worth more to him than money, but that obviously isn't true. If he did this all within 4 months of joining, I'm sure he can do it again. If you deal with this user, make sure to deal with caution.

Do note: If you Biggy, happen to prove to me that you aren't a multi with solid evidence, I will take this thread down and apologize sincerely. I'm not just some douchebag who enjoys hating on random users. But chances are, that's not going to happen, and you're simply going to neg me with some nonsense, as you do with everyone.

Let me make this clear. This thread is NOT to harass Biggy.

Biggy - March 5, 2018, 5:31 pm

I'm none of those people but nice story I guess.

Captain P. - March 5, 2018, 5:31 pm

Ah! Let the entertainment begin!

Riyu - March 5, 2018, 5:34 pm

This is just harassment lol.

Galaxias - March 5, 2018, 5:35 pm

I'm excited to see where this goes!

Crystallize. - March 5, 2018, 5:36 pm

A wall of text with no proofs to back up what you're saying.

Charger - March 5, 2018, 5:36 pm

You made ONE claim and it is based on thread titles. You are straight up harassing Biggy.

Percyi - March 5, 2018, 5:37 pm

Interesting theory but your proof is shit lol. Similar titles? Literally go in the NFA section and just look at the Stat accounts for sale. Literally Parks has an account for sale every week, that his multi too?

Biggy - March 5, 2018, 5:37 pm

I'll let everyone have their own opinion I guess. I'll just say a few things:

I'm here to help. I opened a mm service to help members.
I wrote guides and got sticky awards because I care about the forums.
I donated and took part in the writers because I enjoy the forum.

The last thing in this planet I am, is a scammer. I can't stand people that steal money from people that work for it.

If Omniscient wants a picture of my government ID to look into me further, I don't care, I'll provide it. I've never hidden anything here and I've been pretty transparent.

I genuinely love this community and hold it dear to me. I would never risk my account.

I've seen this happen pretty commonly, usually users that migrate from other forums and were pretty reputable on other forums. That's what happened to me after I became active again around June of 2017 and I went from my shit quality in 2014 to pretty HQ now. Some people just don't know of your past on other forums I guess.

Not sure how this is harassment. I stated multiple times, potential multi. Not only that, but do those stats not alarm you whatsoever? It would be fine if he had been on HF for a longer period of time, but 4 months with those stats are a bit alarming don't you think?

NGMA - March 5, 2018, 5:39 pm

I fuck with Biggy, I think this thread is pretty ludicrous.

Some people just seem to gain popularity more than others, just because it was more than you had gained it in. If you do a lot of business deals and are in groups quite often, you will gain way more rep. Each business deal is pretty much a guaranteed +3 rep.

Regarding this, I've seen Parks threads. They're put in place slightly different. And I could be wrong about this. But after checking several months back, I've seen little to no people whatsoever start their threads with the stat number (all above 50k) and next to it have the niche. Like I said, many of you could think this is a simple coincidence, and it could be, but all I am saying is to be alert. That's it.

My purpose isn't to harass Biggy.

wit - March 5, 2018, 5:44 pm

When I used to appraise things i would copy other thread titles so i didnt look clueless

thats not a good basis for accusation

To come out with the shadiest piece of proof in the similarity of titles, literally there is 3 words you can put in the title of a Stat account for sale. Followers, niche, and what platform, that's about it. If you take simple probability in Statistics, we take the $(1/3)$ to the 3rd power because of the 3 different places that each of them can be in, and that gives you a probability of $1/9$, roughly 11% chance that titles will have that same order. I don't know about you, but way more than 9 accounts have been sold in the past like 6 months so....

Well to be fair, Biggy joined AFTER Joseph Gordon-Levit was banned meaning that chances are, Biggy would have no opportunity to copy his thread titles.

That isn't the shadiest piece of proof, I just simply said they were odd coincidences. My main point is the fact that he joined and within 4 months has created a name for himself. Other people can rise quicker than others, but you know the people who rise the most? Multi accounters.

Deathy - March 5, 2018, 5:47 pm

HAHAHAHAHA, it's fucking hilarious because OP's just salty Biggy called him out for being a retard.

You're a multi yourself, OP.

I disagree. Your basis for creating this thread is the plausibility of Biggy being a multi-accounter. It's unfair to him as it's impossible to refute these claims.

If you have further evidence that can help, feel free to report that to any staff member.

Omniscient - March 5, 2018, 6:06 pm

Irony. OP is the actual multi. I gave him a chance to return too but I suppose he wanted to burn the new account. Shame.
