INCREDIBLE - March 7, 2018, 5:39 am

I'm giving out Digital Ocean credit codes to be used for creating cloud servers (VPS) instances.

As you can see in the picture. I'm also giving my own account with $100 credits to first poster having at least 1 popular thread here on HF helping community members. afterwards, I will be giving one code each to members having a popular "Non-Marketplace" thread to encourage them to post more helpful content and help members around HF. ?

PLEASE DO NOT PM ME. JUST POST HERE AND I WILL GET BACK TO YOU AS SOON AS I HAVE CODES IN STOCK.

First Code given to - AlphaTurtle

|| TERMS||

I have limited codes in stock and I usually check this thread in a week's time when I'm free. I do manually review each member profile to ascertain highest replies on his/her thread. You must have at least one popular thread in one year time-span to be qualified. If I did not quoted you in my reply. that simply means you are not qualified.

I'm watching over.

I will review every member post. and will give code to those who fulfill the requirements as they aren't something cheap and cracked things. thus, limited quantity. so be assured.

also, I'm busy IRL and waiting for codes to be in stock since I'm also selling them in other forum for money. but still keeping some in reserve for this thread. ?
