Thread: Don't you guys just hate water?

Theocritus - March 9, 2018, 4:11 am

Personally i think drinking water is boring af. it tastes nothing and that for some reason triggers me so hard... i hate drinking bland things, which is why i tend to never drink water at all.

what about you people, what do you do?

Ganja - March 9, 2018, 4:27 am

Nah water is alright, when I'm at the office I switch up coffee and water. It's healthy - I don't get a ton of enjoyment out of it but it's alright.

Nachfolger - March 9, 2018, 4:29 am

You might have been molested by water as a child. I don't mind it at all, I hate drinking sugary things and water saves me from that.

Armada - March 9, 2018, 4:31 am

WTF are you talking about OP, Water is one of the best things possible....

Pure water tastes awesome too... get that shit from a natural spring and you are just rocking...

test - March 9, 2018, 4:34 am

You've never had water when you are tired and sweaty after a long day at work or working out. Probably the best tasting thing. Has to be ice cold though.

I fucking love my Natural Canadian Spring Water, and Fiji Water...

If you are so against water, avoid anything water based for 1 week, lets see where it gets you. ?

2SLickZ - March 9, 2018, 4:40 am

I drink alot of water because I know it's good for my body.

It's that simple.

I feel like half of HF members here had parents that didn't allow them to drink soda until the age of 13. Me personally I rather drink a monster black label or cherry Coke.

CYB3RM4N - March 9, 2018, 4:55 am

Water isn't the best drink in the world, but I drink it to stay hydrated, which is good for health I guess.

Drink more water OP, your body will thank you, especially in the future when you grow old(er).

Shef - March 9, 2018, 5:01 am

After a long skateboard session water tastes so fucking good. Water is my favorite drink all that other bullshit is nasty like coke.

Renowned - March 9, 2018, 5:02 am

I quite like water it's nice and refreshing, feel much more hydrated after drinking a glass too. I never used to like it when I was younger though.

i drink way too much coke and energy drinks - gotta stay tuned lol - however, early morning or after a long day water is pure pleasure. However, switched the bottled water brands over the years, there are really vast differences, one tastes like heaven, another tasted like nothing or worse.

ORK24 - March 9, 2018, 7:12 am

I don't understand how someone can be so spoiled and hate water, it's essential to LIVING, do you really have to get 20grams of sugar every time you drink something? or does it really have to be sparkling? it's just water mate.. calm down and drink it

SysAdmin - March 9, 2018, 7:20 am

I really like water by itself, really. Haven't ever had an issue with it and when you're thirsty, it's godsent.

I love drinking water. You don't drink it for flavor. You drink it to hydrate and cleanse your system. Those who rarely or never drink water are unaware of the health risks.

I personally can't stand to drink soda. It's very sugary and syrup like. Tastes like I'm drinking candy. At 90% of my meals I simply drink water.

At my house we never have soda and I don't allow my kids to drink it.

Drink more water. It's incredibly refreshing.

If you drink nothing but soda, kool-aid, juices, alcohol, etc, it's very bad for you to NEVER drink just pure water with nothing added. (Mar 9, 2018 01:12 PM)Armada Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I tend to agree with soda/pop.

I rarely drink the stuff because it feels like I am rotting my teeth out... On the very rare occasion I will have a cane sugar cream soda, but that is about it.

As someone who has been drinking soda since I was 3 years old mainly Coca'Cola my teeth are in pretty good shape sure I cracked a couple teeth and had them filled and had small cavities filled but my teeth aren't rotten to the core with nothing left like for example cigarette smokers which I have witnessed many times within my family the smokers lost there teeth. My biggest mistake when it came to my teeth was eating crispy food and actually chewing lolipops, jaw breakers, etc when I was in my teens.

I simply brush my teeth frequently.

I am not going to argue when it comes to health though it is bad for the health but it is a very hard addiction to overcome for some people including myself.

At 35, I only have like 3 cavities, caused by other crap. Smoking mainly.

I take great care of my teeth but it is just the simple feeling of how sugary the soda is that turns me off of it.

The one exception I make is Whiskey and Coke... And even then regardless of how drunk I am I always got to brush my teeth after.

Theocritus - March 17, 2018, 12:05 am

instead of water today i decided to have orange juice

SIM-74411 - March 17, 2018, 3:32 am

Don't drink water you get fucked mate.

trapeeze - March 17, 2018, 3:41 am

No, I do not.

However, I do not drink lots of water, I live mostly off of soft-drinks and tea.

Riot - March 17, 2018, 6:49 am

I absolutely love water, it's about the only thing I drink. I can also feel a noticeable physical difference (I feel better) when drinking only water. Maybe placebo but I doubt it.

As to the taste I love it as well. Nothing more thirst-quenching than a nice cold glass of water. AND it's cheap as hell!

Ninja - March 17, 2018, 6:51 am

I think I'll have some water today.

@vincent - March 17, 2018, 7:50 am

I like water to drink aslong as it is cold

pms - March 17, 2018, 7:59 am

After a long warm day, and to come home and drink a glass of some cold water, is probably one of the best things ever.

My mom always tell me that I should have a glass every now and then but I just never do it. I'm going to change that :)

Mike? - March 17, 2018, 8:28 am

Water is the healthiest thing ever and it's cheap af/free.

I try to drink a gallon of water a day to keep my brain and organs happy.

I agree that warm water is dogshit.

Mr Meeseeks - March 17, 2018, 11:27 am

I actually really like water, I gave up soda for the most part and it has been a big improvement for me to just drink water.

Theocritus - March 18, 2018, 8:49 pm

i dont really like soda myself either just pure water is so tame

Bear - March 18, 2018, 8:50 pm

Just bought myself a few bottles of Evian to go with dinner. Water is awesome, especially when very high.

but it tastes nothing.....

frsnix - March 19, 2018, 5:27 pm

It's refreshing, how can you not like it? I don't even remember a time where I drank anything but water.

_Ninja - March 19, 2018, 5:28 pm

Although I prefer Sprite or Coke opposed to water, water is a lot more accessible and usually the only thing I have to drink.

Don't worry, lot of people tick the no box, knowing they never drink water.

It does though. You can actually tell the difference in taste between each types of water.

Nothing tastes good too. I'm sure there's a health aspect to it too. Just because I know it's good for me it makes me want to drink it more? Maybe there's some psychology behind it.
