Okey, here are some of mine:

1. You feel refreshed/new man after you have taken a dump.
2. After workout.
3. When you get home and you can just rip your clothes of to feel free and move yourself as you want.
4. The feeling when you are hungry and you know that you have all tasty stuff in storage in the kitchen.
5. When someone compliments you, even the slightest things.
6. The sun.

A few things that just makes life better for me.

Tell me yours!

Why does that make you feel good? That should be the most disappointing thing in the world.

Having an ice cold shower after a hot day at work/after gym etc.

CYB3RM4N - March 12, 2018, 4:50 am

The smell of freshly baked bread.

Waking up after a solid 8 hours of undisturbed sleep.

Peeing in the morning.

Tancrede - March 12, 2018, 10:55 am

A hot shower in the morning, first cig of the day, being with friends/family.

RAT - March 12, 2018, 11:00 am

Yeah, taking a dump. Sex. The first beer after hardcore partying in the morning. Getting home for the weekend. Making profits.

Actually I can vouch for this. It's like the weight of the world has been lifted off your shoulders and feet when you remove the socks.

Your list pretty much summarizes it, although if there's anything to do, it'd have to do with cold showers after a workout.
