Yeah I sometimes have to look twice thinking I got negged.

Renowned - March 12, 2018, 7:26 am

Every so often I sit and wonder if I've got a new one, then I just check and realise someone has either given one or changed from a 3 because I didn't return lol.

Hahaha I always use to change my +4 to a +1 with someone and watch them checking wtf had happened.

Amusing times.

Right? lol. Rep has always been an amusing thing to use. Oh the days of people PM'ing you asking for positive rep and giving them a negative instead.

Riyu - March 12, 2018, 7:32 am

Yeah sometimes I look and see that I've been given a +10 but it's all a lie.

Yeah, there's definitely no chance you'll get a warning for rep abuse or anything...

I normally don't use the phone to browse just because it's too small to actually read everything and be able to reply.

Unless it is something quick that is.

So nah I've never had this happen =-D

For reading through things on the go I'm sure it's really nice.

My phone screen is cracked and flashing and hard to read anything otherwise I'd probably read lot's of posts on it.

That reminds me I need to get my phone screen fixed. Smashed it when I was drunk.

Honestly I really think you should stop even caring about rep, it'll be a relief once you do.

I don't think people really care about it. At least this is the way I think of it...It's cool to watch it go up...but other than actual market place reputations of successful deals I don't care about it. I feel like most people are like this (not gonna throw a fit over it - but it's cool to have more)?
