That and marketing groups. The most cancerous kinds of groups.

Wespa - March 13, 2018, 7:13 am

Anime group for sure.
Nothing beats them.
And I swear I am not a weeb.

Elitas - March 13, 2018, 7:40 am

I'd love to see The Order reunite. I can give you a list of all active members who would be happy to join the group if it returned (under a different name of course).

Marshmallow - March 13, 2018, 8:16 am

A low quality lounge group.

Nebo - March 13, 2018, 9:14 am

Please make a lounge group.

I'm tired of looking at these shit wannabe-hq groups.

Vouch, that group was something else.

ven0m - March 14, 2018, 9:51 am

A group where anything and everything goes. A place to instill great ideas and chill at the same time.

The-Fluffy-Kitty - March 14, 2018, 2:52 pm

A group where we build our own internet, with blackjack and hookers... in fact screw the whole internet thing. ?

In all seriousness, it'd be nice to have a group dedicated to making digital products/services of which we could link to our real world portfolios/githubs. This way many people could be engaged, learn and actually have some content under their belt to show off their skills. ?

Dredd - March 14, 2018, 3:11 pm

One that offers free cookies and sweets

Nate - March 14, 2018, 4:29 pm

I want to see another gaming group lmao.

Dredd - March 15, 2018, 4:50 pm

Something run by divined I don't feel his presence enough

Amazing futurama reference haha, I feel special for recognizing that.

JuiceWRLD - March 16, 2018, 8:42 am

Another gaming group would be nice, just a group mixed with all platforms.

icy? - March 22, 2018, 9:51 am

Kyle1995 - March 22, 2018, 2:27 pm

If MoneyMane is down he could run a thread like that in Terminal. Bring Science, religion, and philosophy into lounge.

Not all of them are so bad if you can filter through the BS

?heshire - March 22, 2018, 2:32 pm

I would personally enjoy another group that takes the lounge seriously. Revolution was like that and I miss the shit out of that group.

Smok&y - March 22, 2018, 2:39 pm

Marketing related would be nice.

There's no apparent reason, to me, to purchase a group for $5k then just offer it as a second lounge to post lounge threads in, which you could just post in the lounge to begin with.

SRPP has many reasons, higher quality posts, better discussions and sharing of knowledge can be encouraged or enforced. There hasn't been a decent srpp group in a long time.

Group lounges are WAY different to the normal lounge. Honestly, you can't even compare it. You don't even necessarily post threads like the lounge. There is just 1 big "Lounge Thread", where everyone comes in and talks about random stuff.
