Thread: [Interviews with HF members \[2018\]](#)

Uploader.sx - March 13, 2018, 1:05 pm

So I've decided to start doing interviews with HF members.

They will be chat interviews or live interviews (audio) or maybe even video.

I didn't decide yet.

Let me know which member you would like interviewed for March 2018.

Edit:

Interview me but with BlackShadow's voice and with a backdrop of Vitani's Mate's harem of lionesses.

Riyu - March 13, 2018, 1:25 pm

You should interview 'Biggy' or 'Narrate'

im just glad im not the one to interview the guy

i bet he smells like fried onions

Nebo - March 13, 2018, 2:01 pm

I believe I'm the best candidate for a chat interview since I wouldn't let you guys appreciate my totally awesome voice.

I also know a lot of HF memes, I've been around for a year or so, idk, I'm lit af and that's what matters.

I'm also very HQ, I get invited by 3 groups per day but I usually turn them down since it would be quite a damage to my prestige if I were to join any of them.

I also get people looking to pay a few k $ for my signature space but it's strictly reserved for the most elite of the elite.

Pre-eminent - March 13, 2018, 2:06 pm

What will the interviews be used for? and are you looking for members with particular skillsets or just random members?

Biggy - March 13, 2018, 2:12 pm

I'll interview with you on voice because why not, about time hf knows what I sound like anyway lol.

Uploader.sx - March 13, 2018, 2:21 pm

Just for fun.

To know more about a user.

I prefer old users and high reputable users tho.

Define high reputation.

I wouldn't be interested in participating anyways, was just wondering if you were searching for hackers or high reputable members on this site.

Good luck with the interview, looking forward to it :=)

NGMA - March 13, 2018, 3:51 pm

Me, Armada, Xerotic, even tho I'm not as notable as them I have done my fair share of stuff go gain a small amount of notoriety here.

630 - March 13, 2018, 5:45 pm

Pretty sure there were a lot of newer mentors added recently. Wouldn't mind hearing from some of those users about what they do.

Lmfao.

You will have to input the line "It is random but I found a pattern.". ?

Ninja - March 13, 2018, 6:19 pm

Voice interviews could be interesting. Chat interviews would be boring.

Mr. Robot - March 13, 2018, 7:23 pm

I have no problem with being interviewed - no voice recording however, transcript only

Crystallize. - March 13, 2018, 8:32 pm

Feel free to interview me.

Cant do voice for personal reasons.

CYB3RM4N - March 13, 2018, 8:36 pm

Nyx for sure.

You could also try to get hold of the famous members, such as Vyrez, Japanese, Mr. Robot and etc.

Uploader.sx - March 13, 2018, 9:19 pm

So, i've decided to choose 3.

Now you choose 1 between: Armada, IHydra, Mr.Robot

Haseo™ - March 13, 2018, 9:22 pm

I would be interested in watching or listening to an interview with a community member.

Sagrav - March 13, 2018, 9:52 pm

Have you had any luck finding any of the potential candidates ?

AcademyAwardz - March 13, 2018, 10:39 pm

interesting to hear.

Most of the members that have been mentioned are fairly long time members or at least very popular.

I think it would be interesting regardless of who it is to be honest. Kind of something new.

wraxu - March 14, 2018, 11:39 am

Yes they are yet there are people who have been around here for a lot longer would be interesting to hear some old fags story about the forum who's still around.

In any case, it would be cool to see anyone interviewed someone older's just what I'd like the most.

Donating to the forum with money donated to me by other users is what I deem only fair. I have turned down awards, feel free to ask Omniscient yourself. I can't control who gives me reputation, however when helping others they tend to return the favor with the only thing they can. I don't judge them for that, nor do I spend hours helping a single person for 1 reputation - I do it to help others better themselves.

You should do a newer member and switch it up a bit. Get inside the mind of someone new on the forum instead of all the old fags. Idk, I just feel like it would be an interesting change of pace if you were to start up again!

Why would anyone here want to hear anything about random user who just joined forum ?

To get the expected and first impressions from a new user. Than to follow up a year later to see if their opinion changed and if they learned anything. Plenty of Information can be collected from a newbie.

I will choose who to interview later.

But are people interested in this?

Do they want to see it again?

u should create a pool, or make an open auction for few day where users can suggest other users, in my opinion this would be cool

If you can make the interviews more HQ and not just some BS from yourself, then sure bring it back to life. but if your not gonna make a effort in doing it like the past 3 then no.

Lol the past 3 interviews were really great.

Not "some BS from yourself".

Actually most people liked them. You must be a mr robot fan and you got hurt after the second interview.

Yes I used to do this also.

Choose 3 members and then let everyone choose of those 3 members.

Gonna wait for some more members to tell if they want or not.

I am no a fan of mr robot. Within the interviews there is a clear showcase of you being LQ throughout the questions you ask. In mr robots its very clear you were in a rush. Im just stating if your gonna make this something put time and effort into it. dont half ass it.

I meant like person A suggests lets say 2 members, person B suggests 1 member, person C suggests 3 persons, and after u get for example 10 people in pool u create vote. Just a thought

Okay no problem will try to be more HQ if this happens again.

Thank you for your opinion!

Looks like you were considering doing audio interviews early on in this. I think you should go forward with that. It'll be a better delivery in my opinion, more engaging, and it exposes personality better a chat-based interview.
