This is bascially a group that I'm creating for people who have a sense of humor and want conversation with other HF users.

I'm not going to pursue anything fancy within this group unless we blow up. Looking for a small community of people who have a sense of humor and are just looking for a place to chill. Always some kind of conversation going on. I'm moderating who joins - you've gotta be fairly hq and be an overall 'cool' person.

I'm not going to censor chat whatsoever, so feel free to discuss whatever you want.

If this goes somewhere, maybe I'll take it farther. I've got some business ideas that I will be choosing partners from within the group.

If you're going to be a dick, don't consider joining. If you're incredibly LQ, don't consider joining. If you're looking for a cool spot to hang out, engage in conversation & learn new things - join.
