Thread: There's a fucking lizard in my garage

Millimeter Peter - March 16, 2018, 1:19 pm

Lmao, there's this maybe 4-5 foot long lizard in my garage, its color is very bright green and it's hugeeee.

How the fuck do I get it out? I don't want to kill it and I don't want to capture it either. It seems as if he is sunbathing.

My garage is outdoors however it's gated. I believe he lives in my roof or climbed the wall.

You got yourself a lil ole iguana. Watch out for their tails and claws. Other than that, get a towel and throw it ontop of him, than grab him behind the head and by the tail. Not to hard though.

SIM-403479 - March 16, 2018, 1:25 pm

Leave it and take a picture please

Enzio - March 16, 2018, 1:28 pm

Gotta throw the whole garage away now.

Temp_reassign - March 16, 2018, 1:32 pm

Did you honestly left the garage to make a thread about this? Lmao. Ok then, please post a picture.

Yes please please take a picture of it.

Then setup a shrine inside of your garage to worship your new reptilian god entity.

Bring him bugs weekly and knit him an iguana sweater.

You must also name him Benji.

Benji the lizard enjoys long walks in the sun, long naps in the sun and sticking his tongue out at people.

Benji is the best.

Try getting a broom or something and guide it out the right direction.

wit - March 16, 2018, 2:01 pm

holy shit that's big, i agree with ^ the broom method

7deadpandas - March 16, 2018, 2:04 pm

That lizard is awesome, I don't think it will do anything to you, I'm sure that lil animal will be more scared than you when you come with that broom to kick it out.

ORK24 - March 16, 2018, 2:17 pm

1. Capture it
2. Adopt it
3. Give it a place to live and food
4. Have a blast with your new reptilian best friend

And as stated above name it Benji

JoshAllen - March 16, 2018, 2:28 pm

Haha, that guy is huge. I wonder where he wandered off too.

Octavia - March 16, 2018, 5:24 pm

Looks like an iguana. Careful about its tail they will slap you with it and it hurts like a bitch.

Sigma - March 16, 2018, 5:29 pm

Those things are super cool! Feed it some fruit and chill with it for a bit.

Nakamoto. - March 16, 2018, 5:41 pm

Its an iguana, they are pretty harmless. I think they are cute and have had one as a pet when I was a child.

Wild iguanas aren't harmless. I has a few as pets when I was younger also.

CYB3RM4N - March 16, 2018, 7:37 pm

You should probably call SPCA or something to come and remove it.

Theocritus - March 17, 2018, 12:23 am

what about asking him nicely to leave? or perhaps offering it a bribe

That thing is bigger than my dog. How can you have it as a pet mralihaidar - March 17, 2018, 5:42 am man those guys from saudi arabia are hunting lizards in the desert and cooking them with rice. and you get this lizard come to you and refuse to make it a meal ? huh

Winter General - March 17, 2018, 5:51 am leave it alone? It is not like it can grow into a giant size and kill you.

Otis???????????????? - March 17, 2018, 8:32 am

Why not keep it as a pet and name it Arnold.

Punisher - March 17, 2018, 8:49 am

Mr Meeseeks - March 17, 2018, 11:30 am

Other than the bacteria that they can carry, and how they act if provoked, it should be relatively docile. Maybe call some animal control service?
