Your images are broken. Consider using Imgur.

Two days and still OP hasn't managed to post proper image links

I'm impressed by how stupid this is

Maybe anti virus is blocking it. Why not just use a trusted domain like Imgur like I told you 3 times now?

I think this is the only image op wants to show and the others are just this same image but on different hosts am i right or not

A second page and the OP still will not rehost images. And members wonder why they do not get swamped with help.
