Thread: Any vulnerabilities in this website?

Eccy - March 20, 2018, 12:33 pm

Anyone mind finding any vulnerabilities in this website for me? <http://skies.fun> It's literally a copy+paste of my website(<http://eccy.club>)

Annoying as fuck.

To be honest I like his more, because it has a good song on the background lol.

Anyways, there's nothing vulnerable on that site, doesn't even have any google results.

The guy even left a piece of comment of WinHTTrack in his source:

why would str8 html have a vulnerability lol

i mean unless the web host has a vuln somewhere, the default setups that web servers have are usually pretty damn safe.

Once it's on the internet, it's public-domain, homie. You need to learn to get over it. :/

On a side note, I'm a bit shocked to see you running with a group here.
