Thread: Scammed by druyd uid=2528910 for \$175 BTC

Sold use $175 BTC for PP and never paid. Went offline so expected they will pay when back. User comes back on for a short bit and goes back offline. Tracked BTC to a large wallet so I assume its been exchanged already.

Not sure if its legit since the user hasn't responded since but after seeing another person in the same situation and another one saying he was scammed a while back and nothing was done I am just making this in case...

Also unaware of scammers not being punished on this forum. Dam thats a serious let down not sure why I posted this x.x
