Have you ever had that moment where you thought like: damn, I'd sure do love some chicken (any food) right now and suddenly your parents/wife/aunt/any relative are like whatsup nig we're eating chicken tonight.

I swear this happened multiple times, how do they do this pls?

I think you suffer from a Chicken Dependency. Please see your local Chickenologist.

They put female hormones in chickens so they grow with more meat on them. Then you become gay from them and grow tits.

Mr Meeseeks - March 21, 2018, 8:06 am

I have definitely had that happen to me. It may be a bit odd, but I don't mind.

SaintJimmy - March 21, 2018, 8:20 am

Stuff like this are really common with me. Doesn't surprise me much. I have Chicken about 4/7 days in a week.

Headless - March 21, 2018, 8:26 am

Happens to me tons of times. They are magical!

Ninja - March 21, 2018, 8:32 am

So does this only happen with chicken?

JuiceWRLD - March 21, 2018, 8:33 am

With something as common as chicken I wouldn't be surprised if it was being served later on in the day.

But, if it was lobster or some shit like that I would be more impressed than shocked

Exactly. I'm sure a lot of people think of KFC during the day.

But do you ever crave lobster?

SupremeLV - March 21, 2018, 8:41 am

The real question is what do you like better Popeyes or KFC

For the chicken both. For the fries definitely popeyes. There's nothing like it.
