Thread: The youth of tomorrow are fucked - Pimp my Interview

Armada - March 21, 2018, 9:16 am

So I just came back from a job interview...

To say the least, This interview was just fucking phenomenal. Interview went so well, I KNOW I will be getting a call back.

Here is the funniest part.. The job I interviewed for, was for Networking, and Network Administration Instructor for a College.

So I am laughing here at myself for 2 reasons, the central interview was them asking me to stand up and make a presentation, like any instructor or teacher would.

I was apparently suppose to be advised to prepare a presentation before hand, but was not told to do so by the hiring manager.

So the VP and President just handed me the course outline and gave me 10 mins to make a presentation.

I took a quick look over the material and curriculum and made a few bullet points, and just jumped in to it using my existing knowledge.

VP who was the more technical of the two tried to throw me a few curve balls in questions, but managed them smooth AF, answers literally came off the tip of my tongue.

I am fucking psyched to hear back from them.

This is basically my opportunity to take what I do around here answering all the newbie questions and actually see people I help make something of themselves. ?

Either that, or everyone under my wing is totally fucked. Imao. ? ?

Congratulations man. I study computer networking and I'm trying to get my certificates very soon. Sounds like everything worked out for you.

8VIII - March 21, 2018, 9:22 am

damnn ,that was funny lol

If students pass in this course they get 3 certs.

A+, Cisco, And MCSE ?

That's actually very good. After I'm done with A+, I'll probably go for Net+ and CCNA.

Go for Security + as well.
That is critical now a days.

Oh, almost forgot, the VP of the college was so impressed he asked if I was willing to redevelop their entire infrastructure. ?

Mr Meeseeks - March 21, 2018, 3:23 pm

Wow, good job Armada. Good luck with your new job.

Angelus - March 21, 2018, 4:11 pm

Nice job, I'm not too much into this kinda stuff but I'm glad it worked out well for you

They'll hopefully take advantage of having you as a teacher :)

I'm fifteen, but logically it seems reasonable that you'd have to keep the mindset that you're teaching college kids and basically whether they pass or fail isn't completely your fault, but also in the interests of wanting to pursue what they learn in the class.

I'm sure you'll do fine lol

gring0 - March 21, 2018, 4:13 pm

Imao imagine if you don't get a call back

Cagey - March 21, 2018, 4:13 pm

Are you trying to be an instructor?

Riot - March 21, 2018, 4:15 pm

That's fucking awesome man, congratulations.

test - March 21, 2018, 4:16 pm

Congrats dude! I suck at interviews and that 'on-the-spot- type questioning.

lucky. - March 21, 2018, 4:17 pm

Damn that's awesome, I'm sure your students are going to do great. Keep us updated ?

Lukas - March 21, 2018, 4:18 pm

Good shit, but why do you say "the youth of tomorrow are fucked?"

Was it the whole bit of you taking people under your wing an all that, that was insinuating they'd be fucked by studying under you, Imao?

Honestly speaking I always feel this way, but apparently I am quite good addressing crowds and large audiences.

god bless anyone who gets you as their mentor :')

FamousHater - March 21, 2018, 5:04 pm

they will fire you once your phone rings in class from a pm notification asking for help with orcus again.

That was their largest concern, actually.

They saw I own and operate Orcus, and were concerned being I own my own company if I would be able to dedicate the time to proper instructing.

I simply explained and addressed how I operate my company and support for products, and they realized there would be no impact. ?

(Mar 22, 2018 05:08 AM)Fuarkkkkkkkk Tbh Srs Ngl Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Lol! Incredible! Where did you learn networking Armada?

College, similar to the one I interviewed at.

I have a Degree of Networking and Internet Infrastructure with 94% average.

Microsoft Certificate of Excellence

And many additional certifications, like A+ Sec+, Network+, VMware ESX/GSX Server Virtualization, etc....

What was nice in my career I was always good at cross training and writing up documentation, so my previous employers would always send me for the certifications and then have me cross train everyone else in the office. lol

I got the certs, they got cross trained. ?

Grey Goose - March 22, 2018, 5:19 am

It sounds like it went well!

Keep us updated on if you're getting the job!

Hopefully you'll get the job Armada, may I ask what were their questions? Mainly because I wanna know what kind of questions can I expect in this field.

Well, the general interview was fairly straight forward.

Some general technical questions, a review of my work history, a few questions about my training experience.

What did throw me off was the expectation of a presentation, which I was apparently suppose to be told about before hand, but was not, so I was given 10 mins to make up a presentation using the course outline material.

Took a bit of quick thinking, but I think this is what they expected.

After that, they asked a few questions about problem resolution.

Like what would you do if you got a class of say 10 people, and 2 are much further behind than the other 8 and they have a problem with the ones who are behind, what would you do? kind of questions.

Can I just link you one video?

INCREDIBLE - March 22, 2018, 7:46 am

Considering your technical background and bunch of IT certifications you have. ohh and their being aware of you own Orcus makes me pretty sure that you would get this job.

No doubt/
