No, there is no chance your account will get banned.

Do you need my password?

Yes, since it's an upgrade to your personal account. You are welcome to change it before and after, or we can make a new account for you.

How long will it last?

Spoiler (Click to View)

In my personal experience, upgrades last anywhere from 6-18 months. If your upgrade breaks within the first 6 months, we will gladly re-upgrade your account for you!

Hi, I'm working on getting PayPal payments implemented. For now, I'm happy for you to donate a buck or two to charity, send me a screenshot and I'll upgrade the account for you.
