Fuck bros, im in a pickle...

I've always treated my hair like some sort of monument. I never want to get haircuts because I'm afraid the dumb bitch will destroy my hair. My hair is getting extremely long and it's making my hair not look good, so Ive been wearing hats. I don't look the best in hats so I need to get a haircut. But a fucking chief doesn't want them RUINING IT!

anyone else feel this way?? thoughts? comments?

Maybe Next post could be a share your battleships hair edition?

Just show them a picture of a haircut you want. If they are too dumb to get that shit done based on a picture then idk what they are doing.

OP send us a picture or something, I mean we can't really help you if we have no idea what kind of hairstyle may suit you.

Silent Uprising - March 24, 2018, 11:13 pm

Send me a selfie or give me permission to find one of you myself. I'll tell you what will best suit you for your face type/shape as should any decent barber.

DonutDony - March 25, 2018, 1:43 am

Mr Meeseeks - March 25, 2018, 10:59 am

If you are growing your hair out, or want to, you may as well focus on taking good care of it.

grady - March 25, 2018, 11:03 am

If this is the way you'd like to come out, that's cool bro

luke - March 25, 2018, 11:13 am

Cut your own hair if you're too scared of others doing it ;)

Klout - March 25, 2018, 11:18 am

Buy a quality hair trimmer and do it yourself then.

Or call someone to your place and do it, that's what i did a lot of times.
