I do not know OP or have any relations with him.

Simple straightforward review, I honestly thought it was something I had in mind and in other peoples mind but it isn't. However, I've personally seen this method done somewhere else on another site like iOffer, but, this method has its own twist to it that applies to iOffer only. And that makes this method pretty unique.

So vouch, but recommend not to sell too much otherwise this will get saturated really fast.

99% is spoonfed and there is some goodies in the e-book. You can probably get more than $50 worth of goods.

"item never arrived"
"box is empty"

And you get a refund most of the time..

If you're willing to provide another vouch review, I'll construct an honest feedback post. I personally use loffer sometimes so this would suit me.

I've recieved the method and I must say. I didn't really expect this, it does contain social engineering but it shouldn't be hard at all.

Is this basically the method like "I have a company and I might want to sell your products, is it possible to receive some samples to give out to see if my customers like it?" ?

Or is it something different

Or is it something differentI can see that it's a little bit based on that but it's kinda different. That method only works like 1/10th of the time, this one has a way higher chance of success.

Space• - March 26, 2018, 3:51 am

Expected something, but it wasn't the case. Easy to follow method, simple and gives you the necessary resources in order to get started! Everything is prepared for you, it even comes with already set-up features. I think $50 is a bit too much, I'd say $30 is reasonable but if you're into reselling this can definitely work out for you. Great method.

axydev - March 26, 2018, 3:54 am

Thanks! Price stays the same though, only selling one copy for now.

Saw this exact same thing on another website (not sure if I'm allowed to show the name or not) from someone going by the name as 0x72.

It has the exact same thread design except the price seems have changed price, colour and font. Willing to give you the benefit of the doubt but this does look fishy.

OP is probably reselling old shitty methods.

Is this the method where you tell them you sent the money via PayPal or bank but it needs a shipping number to come through? So they send it give you the shipping number but they don't get the money because you never actually sent it?

Don't worry, i am 0x72. I got banned from Nulled because i was trying to sell my account on Hackforums.

I changed the font because i couldn't find the source file anymore.

Then why are you selling this method almost 5x higher than on nulled?

The method is simply worth more than that. Only sold it once on Nulled.

I also just want the method to stay unsaturated.
