Thread: Nearly max - What are your total levels/goals?

Linkin Park - March 28, 2018, 1:21 pm

What's up! Haven't really played much RS recently, but I got to this total level and have had a few IRL issues so have been unable to play. I've now been able to find some free time whilst sorting my life out, so am back playing. What are your total levels/goals?

My main goals are to max and get as many pets as I can. Currently have 12, so hoping to get a few more whilst maxing (rcing/hunter/mining pets pls) and then get that sexy max cape and boss nonstop :)

Really nice account man. What did you do in particular for Runecrafting up until 91?

I did a fair amount of nature runecrafting when I could be bothered, and when I was busy with other things or playing another game I semi-afk'd blood runes.

I mostly did the most efficient option when I had the motivation, and when I didn't I'd do afk/semi-afk training methods :)

I'm maxed. Got a progress thread should you be interested to take a look.

I'm currently going for all skilling pets and one billion total XP. So far, I've only gotten the runecrafting pet - one single day - after I maxed.

how do you guys get the motivation to train runecrafting and agility ?

Hit 1750 total earlier today, working on 70 base stats (only RC, farming, construction and hunter left) and trying to make some money because I am poor as fuck.

IGN is: Koax if you want to add a fellow HF brother. GL on maxing mate!

I don't get why people hate those two skills.

If you do blood runes it's some of the most chill and afk content.

Ardougne agility course is the absolute best thing I know in this game. I intend to get 200m agility.
