Top User Statistics Compilation - 2018

The last Top User Statistics Compilation I did was back in 2016, which you can find here
Since I was recently requested by Views and Armada to make an updated version of this list, here's the 2018 version edition!

Keep in mind that some of them are not entirely accurate as i excluded members with closed accounts on these lists, and some lists are harder to create then others.

If you want to visit the profile of a member in this thread, simply click on the image they are in.

Fun Facts About Awards

Spoiler (Click to View)

Sticky much..?

The user with the most sticky man awards is Maxim, who currently has 5 seperate sticky man awards for all his informative threads.

Grandest Amethyst of them all

The user Fannas1 donated for an astounding 8 Grand Amethyst awards, 6 of which he donated for all at once. Aside from this he donated for a Master Donator award, bought a group and more.

The king of the old days

Back in the old days, around 2009-2010, there was a very generous user known as nokia2mon2. Aside from his numerous public donations it's said that he also helped out with other HF related things. Because of this he received a special award called "Heart of the King", which was made especially for him by Omniscient, to show his appreciation. Sadly the user hasn't been around since late 2016, but he is always welcomed here.

Hack Forum's biggest Asswipe

If you are a regular here at HF, you will definitely know the user Orgy. Love him or hate him, he somehow managed to get not 1, not 2 but 4 asswipe awards! I can only guess that he's a very special asswipe.

Taking your passion to the extreme

A lot of users would consider themselves to be passionate about this website. They browse it every day for hours and it consumes most of their day. Mr.Robot is no different, well actually he is. He went one step further and actually had a tattoo of the HF logo set on his arm. This earned him the newly added "Diamond of Evil" award, because of his bad ass tattoo. You can read more about this here.

Please feel free to post suggestions as what other lists you would like to see, and i'll add them to this thread.

I'm pretty weak at this. Cool lists though. I'll never be on one.

Nyx 4.5k and rest all like 150 or soo?

Just see the difference.

Useless list imo.

Interesting how the oldest active members don't have as much rep or post count like one would expect Seems like they're not whoring it around and just chillin.

Good list, was fun to read about all type of members.

Views - March 29, 2018, 12:10 pm

I didn't expect to still have the 2nd most awards honestly I also thought FamousHater would've passed Vitanti's Mate up on reputation by now.

Nice to see this updated though as a lot of members wonder about these things.

Danny Khalifa - March 29, 2018, 3:25 pm

Very nice thread.
Worth a read <3

Mr. Robot - March 29, 2018, 3:32 pm

Brb donating 2k for 2 more GAs to tie for first.

All jokes aside, thanks for the updated list. I actually have a few ideas on what could be added, just trying to think of how to word them.

Ooh prestige could be a good one, thread count? Online time?

Deany - March 29, 2018, 3:56 pm

Vitani's Mate - March 30, 2018, 4:13 am
