#3 HF's Unofficial Interviews By RealMafia

30/3/2018

User: Danny Khalifa - uid=2952200 Me: Hello and welcome to HF's unofficial interviews sir.

How are you today?

Danny Khalifa: Hello, thank you. I am great. What about you?

Me: I'm fine. Thanks for asking.

To begin with, let's start with your personal life if you don't mind. How old are you, do you have any hobby and do you have a job?

Danny Khalifa: I am almost 20 years old, my hobbies are spending money on myself and smoking with my crew and speaking about crypto currencies and other things, that's how I love spending my free time.

No, I do not have a "job". I just learned that everyone can be it's own boss but nobody ever told you that. I worked in few places, but it was too much of hassle for me at that age.

Me: You joined HF back in 2015. Could you tell us why you joined this community?

Danny Khalifa: Honestly, I never really been into a forum. I never liked any forums. But my friend told me this one is pretty nice and you can learn a lot of things here, so I just signed up.

Me: As I can see, you mostly do currency exchanging on HF. How it all started?

Danny Khalifa: It started by when I was tired of doing E-Whoring only. And I knew I can learn something new, put some effort and do something. And then I thought about currency exchange. I passed thru so many issues when I just started, didn't knew much. But I learned everything, got my own methods and it's going good.

Me: Do you think that anyone can start his own currency exchanging service?

Danny Khalifa: Not really everyone. There's lots of NEEDS to start this service. First of all, you need a good reputation, a lot of time and you must love what you're doing. This is not my first income. But I do this, because I like doing this.

Me: Could you probably tell us what is your first income?

Danny Khalifa: Trading crypto currencies.

Me: Any advice/word for all the currency exchangers on HF?

Danny Khalifa: I wish everyone best of its trades and make more money. Always be loyal, that's the best card in your life.

Me: "Deal Disputes: 8/1". You actually got scammed 8 times but you make a lot of deals on HF. So, other than using a middleman, what do you think is the best way to protect yourself from scammers?

Danny Khalifa: Protecting from scammers has always been a mess.

It's hard to spot a scammer, you may never know if you might be the first to get scammed.

The best thing is to check everything about himself, starting from the reputation to the posts, time online spent. And hoping for the best. Obviously there is some serious stuff behind it, if something goes wrong and you get scammed a nice amount.

Me: You also sell eWhore packs. Are you still eWhoring? Or just being white-hat nowadays?

Danny Khalifa: I sell the packs that I made a lot of money long time ago. And they're good packs. I do not E-Whore since last year. I did that for a year, and got tired of it. Even if it made me money to live better than I did before.

Me: We are both in "Terminal" group. I joined it for fun. Why did you?

Danny Khalifa: I also did joined for fun. Been in a lot of groups, had some time in them and learned something new.

Me: What are the other groups you've joined before?

Danny Khalifa: I've been in Consensus, The Notorius, Influence, Entrepreneurs, Unity and few others. Can't really remember their names anymore.

Me: Aside from Omniscient, who is your best Staff/Admin on HF?

Danny Khalifa: Minimalist. I think he's the most intelligent guy after Omniscient.

Me: If you don't mind me asking, what are your future projects?

Danny Khalifa: I don't really have future projects, except making my services better. I am good with that.

Me: Any last word? Any shoutout?

Danny Khalifa: Thank you for this interview. It was a pleasure!

Much less biased questions than your interview with Mr. Robot.

A huge improvement, hopefully you avoid asking insulting questions in your future interviews. Good job!!

Ive kinda been trying to coach him over skype. Robots interview was kinda fucked, even he admitted that.

It was really fucking unfair and rude, and I don't blame Robot for his reaction. It was so fucking unprofessional and I don't want to read that again. If you're going to ask somebody for an interview, at least be respectful.

The question choice was pretty bad and it was like those dry conversations you have with someone when you first meet them. I actually didn't think it was that bad until I read this question:

Quote:Me: Well, my guess was for "attention". Is the ink used temporary or permanent?

Chosen 1 - March 30, 2018, 8:50 am

I like these threads man, keep it up. I'm down for a interview anytime. I have been here a long time and seen a lot of people come and go.

Nate57 - March 30, 2018, 8:51 am

The thread with Mr Robot was closed and everyone is saying how it's an improvement compared to that one.

@OP, not bad. It's a shame we don't have interviews for the HF News anymore.

What a fantastic interview, I learned so much about this user and his beliefs/ideas as well as things I will remember in the future.

Nuworld - March 30, 2018, 9:29 pm

This i will say was a very good interview.

@Op great job.

However IMO Interviews should be conducted on a one on one basis.

And done in a live situation.

I have done my fair share of interviews for the Writers/wiki and i always do live interviews.

Yes i understand it can be very difficult to coordinate interviews seeing many of the users time zones are different.

Doing live interviews takes Time, dedication and patients.

However the end results will by far out way any online forum application.

There needs to be a personal level between the interviewer and the interviewee when doing interviews.

This being said i hope to see more in the near future.

@Op once again good job, your getting there.

possibly a future Writ3r?
