Let us know if he doesn't pay up. Am sure he cares for his Instagram and Youtube and wouldn't want anything to happen to them.

Lmao $60 why are people so broke goddamn

Ninja - March 31, 2018, 8:46 am

Charged back for $60 lmao. I don't understand people whatsoever.

Hopefully it gets resolved. He also had an open DD from the past. You shouldn't deal with people with unresolved DDs. Just some advice for the future.

you'll get your money back, especially it's a graphic being sold.

FilmGuy - March 31, 2018, 10:54 am

Hey man not sure what happened. Woke up to an email that my debit card was deactivated and account limited.

Still need to call paypal.

There is no reason why I'd risk my paypal account that has been business verified for 4 years over $60.

iwu - March 31, 2018, 2:09 pm

He's fucking lying mate. He claimed he was out of the country traveling abroad and needed 15$ to stay a night in a hotel. I wanted to be nice and send him it bc he said he would Ly meback 3 days later. It's been a month and he just avoids my PMs while trying to get more free stuff. He basically scammed me out of 15$ which is pretty say. His card is fine he hasn't been responding to my PMs even though. He scammed me too bro, don't believe why he says.

Doesn't matter idd if he's right or not. He owes you $60.
That simple.

Doesn't matter if it's his fault or not.

Romeos - April 1, 2018, 8:42 am

Send as many screenshots as you can to paypal. Describing the deal. You'll win this.

That simple.

Doesn't matter if it's his fault or not. I'm really curious, the payment was made on 5th of January so I doubt it will be affected by sudden unusual activity on his PayPal.

already sent 2 screenshots

1. when we made the deal
