Thread: Need an Award Image

Omniscient - March 31, 2018, 1:00 pm

I'd like to see someone from the community try to make an award image.

I'm going to provide Xerotic an award he can grant once a month which will help compensate him for all his hard work. It's part our payment agreement. We need one serious kick ass image to represent both him and his efforts.

There is no restriction to the ideas you can come up with. I have no guidelines or direction for the style of the award. I do have image size restrictions. All awards are 24x24 and are not animated. Most are PNG but gif or jpg is fine too. I do not use transparency but a #333333 background instead.

So to add designers. Please give us something original for this. I will reward the creator the actual award and possibly even a bonus award. So you will be a designing an award to go on your own profile.

Any questions?

Thank you.

I bet this is going to be sick.

Good luck to everyone who is going to make it the best.

Biggy - March 31, 2018, 1:05 pm

Excited to see the results of this. Hopefully people submit some real badass award images for Xerotic.

FamousHater - March 31, 2018, 1:07 pm will wait until xerotic tells us what hes into. colors etc so then can make one for his liking.

Grim - March 31, 2018, 1:09 pm

This should be fun to see what people can come up with!

@Xerotic, got any ideas of how you want your well deserved award?

Quote:@Xerotic, got any ideas of how you want your well deserved award?

I think it's best to give designers freedom to create whatever they want.

Xerotic - March 31, 2018, 1:25 pm

I don't have a lot of preference to color. We would like to see different entries that aren't trying to adhere to set guidelines so we have the largest range of options. Thank you to everyone who helps out with this.

Omniscient - March 31, 2018, 1:26 pm

Also note that if a few amazing awards are created that I may use them for a future award.

i call it the Drill (its a WIP, this is just a basic idea/outline/sketch)

I think it should be granted to anyone who has helped create something notable for the site, may it be a popular extension, an API tool, etc.

Here's some award submissions I've made.

Dreamer - You sleep or dream a lot.

- For people who are big dreamers or sleep for hours.

Service Master - You offer a lot of free or paid services.

- For people who offer legitimate services on Hack Forums, free or paid.

Encrypted - You're the master of encryption/security.

- For people who crack hashes or just are the gods of security/encryption.

Lightbulb - You have excellent ideas!

- For the people who have amazing ideas or submissions in order to improve the forum, or just have amazing ideology.

I'll update this thread as I create more awards, still got a few ideas in mind. All of these are vectored by me.

For some reason some of the pictures turned out blurry. I have the high quality versions of the awards though but they just turn blurry when I resize them.

Here's some opposites, probably not the best ideas:

Red Apple - You have a very low reputation / Or it could be easily used for something else.

- For people like -Nyx, probably not a good idea as it could encourage people to LQP and gain negative reputation. This could be easily used for something else though.

White Hatter - A proven white hat gets this award.

- Basically the opposite of black hatter but still differs from WH Helper. Would possibly encourage people to do good.

XzoRcisT - April 1, 2018, 3:22 am

Spent about 2 hours and came up with these.

All are 24x24, with #333333 background and are in .png format.

Since there were no specific guidelines or directions,

I took a general approach with the theme, few borrowed concepts, and just added my own twist.

Not sure if most are aware but Xerotic is actually the name for a type of eczema, quite similar to psoriasis ^_^

Unsure if that's why you chose the nickname or stuff, but might be funny to get a 'disgusting' award of sorts.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Xerotic_eczema

Here is a lame ass attempt at that if any1 needs a general direction :-)

Basically an eczema eruption.

Or erm, you know, have someone make a dildo full of pimples.

Or two fingers squeezing out a pimple..

Or..I'll just stop right here since I'm going overboard :))

Either way, would be a nice troll award you can punk out to various individuals, if that's your aim.

Hey guys just a note:

The award is designed to be compensation for the work I am (and will be doing) for HF. The past few weeks I have been working full time for HF coding and bug testing. It will be like this for many months to come. Since HF will be my primary income source (and I am an adult with bills and life) and my job, Omniscient allows me to grant this award once per month, with the plan being that I will auction/sell this award once per month so I can pay my bills. I love helping HF and I love coding, but my I need to pay my bills in order to dedicate the enormous amount of time that I will be (and have been) putting towards Hack Forums.

Sorry for any confusion and hope everybody understands. Thanks.

I think its really hard to actually make something that could be worth one month rent, because he will be trying to sell the award afterwards and people need to want it.

Makaveli The Don - April 6, 2018, 9:31 am

So after running this by Xerotic and Omni, I have an idea that needs a proper designer to work on it.

Basically a DNA molecule model:

<https://i.pinimg.com/originals/8d/f7/3e/8df73e5259cb2ed01503c54ce4a7fc70.jpg>

<https://www.sharecg.com/images/medium/108226.jpg>

The idea being that genetic factors play a part in determining intelligence and he's a smart guy, not to mention the shape is already in the form of an "X" which is the first and dominant letter of Xerotic's name.

Colors can be customized to his liking but it needs someone who can produce a High Quality image/model for the award.
