Shhh I know. Just refresh it.

Sickness - April 1, 2018, 3:34 pm

100% april fools. Police wouldnt put that much work on the index. We already can see like megaupload or others that had the same when they got seized.

kray - April 1, 2018, 3:34 pm

Oh yeah, the FBI would totally leave artifacts of a site's previous design in the takedown notice, Imfao.

<http://www.libertyreserve.com/index.html> they've gotten more creative since this one.

minimalist - April 1, 2018, 3:35 pm

Probably an joke given their recent promotional tweet, but they must have great opsec to be joking about that.

Thank you for ruining the joke! ???

SIM-3257834 - April 1, 2018, 3:37 pm

Fake, you can tell because NCA doesn't have any real power just like the country it's funded by...

bandors - April 1, 2018, 3:40 pm

When America helps seize something we slap like 5 big dick alphabet agency logos and give internations maybe 2 not enough USA showboating for this

SIM-2223238 - April 1, 2018, 3:56 pm

Inb4 it's double joke as you think it's clearly a joke but when in reality it's actually not a joke. holyshit that's a good joke.

doesnt take much to impress you.

I honestly haven't even heard of this site before, remember that one site leakbase or whatever assuming it's similar. It's not actually down though.

? Soufian ? - April 1, 2018, 5:58 pm

Fake, all these logo's can't be working together. Usually it's the EU ones or the US ones. But not combined.

EDIT:

Refresh & everything will be the same.

Bad april fools day since it can easily scare the shit out of customers and make them go away.

weleakinfo - April 2, 2018, 3:10 am

The seized page was inspired from the # and Hasha seizure pages. If you see the HTML/CSS is exactly the same with some useless shit removed.

The logos are mostly all the same, I added interpol and the NCA.

But yeah pretty funny imo :)

Vyxn - April 2, 2018, 3:22 am

When it's already April 2 but the site still showing that page. GG

I mean April, I need to sleep. >.<

Barney - April 2, 2018, 3:32 am

It's a joke from the owners. I wonder if the agencies are actually looking to get them off the internet though, it's not exactly legal right?

Mr Meeseeks - April 2, 2018, 2:35 pm

That seized page does not look legit, unless they changed it from the Mega-upload style one.
