Can someone help me. My Lords Mobile account has been hacked. i bought this account from someone in internet. there is no problem at that time. but recently somebody can login to my acc. i still can login to my acc. this hacker destroy all of my building in games, and he can put my hero in prison. i have asked help from igg, but they refuse to service my acc since trading an acc is prohibited. can someone here help me please....i really need help....

There's bots available for the game, ones that allow you to gather resources and auto return troops if an army is about to hit it, but that's it.
