Thread: It's Scam.Fraud experience in Ranger-Exploit\(www.ranger-exploit.com\)

Cav45 - April 8, 2018, 7:44 pm

Hi,Guys.

I am a crpytomania and I've been looking for 0days since a few days ago.

I've heard the Jpg 0day sales news in Ranger-Exploit and contacted to the supporter with Jabber (His JabberID:rangerexploit@jabber.fr)

He asked me 15$ BTC to show me the performance on TeamViewer.

And then he executed ps file with parameters of jpg file and putty.exe, and build a new Jpg Malware file.

When he clicked that Jpg file, the picture opened and putty.exe was also executed.

At that time, i asked him to down Process Hacker and execute it.

And then i found putty.exe is executed as child process of Svchost.exe ?

That Scvchost.exe was located in Desktop\newfolder and it has been loaded about 1 hours ago.. ?

I asked him what that svchost.exe file, but he hasn't answered and close TV and gone away....

I think svchost.exe was hooking Windows Image View and open putty.exe

? That site was scam and he doesn't reply my msg anymore~

Does the person who sells real 0day exist on earth? ?

Imao looks legit to me, damn poor georgians.

ganstephanos - April 10, 2018, 4:28 am

People who claim they're selling 0days publicly are scammers. Especially on clearnet.

dand4871 - May 5, 2018, 2:56 pm

He ripped me sometimes ago for $300 for doc exploit ken0man - May 7, 2018, 11:28 am i have been ripped several times by the so-called silent exploit sellers. the funny part of it is that they show me the sh*t on tv and it works well but when i pay they run away like whores as they are. It is better you go for macros instead of wasting your cash looking for silent exploits.

I think this is exactly the same guy that has ripped me off with almost 25,000 USD!
I've already posted this in another thread within this forum but I think it is worth to share
What's unbelievable is that the guys actually has a ZERO DAY EXPLOIT working with latest Acrobat DC READER Version and FUD
He tested it locally on one of my laptops and it worked perfectly with my own .exe that's why I agreed to pay in the first place
The bad part is that at the end he doesn't delivers anything and asks for more money!
This one is in hunterexploit_dot_com and his email is jabber:hunterexploit_at_jabb3r
DO NOT BUY FROM HIM

DO NOT BUY FROM HIM Are you sure what you have/got is/was real silent? I didn't spend that much but yea, was hella expensive + I showed OP mines but he was a total waste of time lol. I own a 0-day but ofcourse, the sellers are always paranoid and do not attend to random buyers.

emjei2 - May 10, 2018, 1:38 pm

Corver - May 11, 2018, 6:36 am

Why do you all believe anything like this on the clearnet? That's what I'll never understand. I'm glad you were able to diffuse the scam before he took advantage of you.
