Thread: OSRS Account Shop - 1557 Total - 232 QP // MAIN & PURE FOR SALE!

Elmo. - April 9, 2018, 4:37 pm

Hello fellow members, i'll try my luck again on selling these accounts as i have already tried earlier but the Main account has gotten so much progress with the quests so i thought i'd just create a whole new thread for this. I currently have a Main account and a Pure for sale. Main has been created by me and leveled by hand. As for the Pure goes it was bought from a trusted Rune gold & Account shop with only the Strenght level and other stats as 1. (Bought around a year ago). When buying an account from me i will include all the recovery details i have for the accounts. I currently only accept BTC, RSGP & PayPal from trusted members.

I get these sudden urges sometimes to create a new account, this time i'm going for HCIM and leaving these behind so thought i'd sell these, otherwise they would just collect dust.

Main account:Few quests short from Quest Point Cape.

Ardougne & Falador Medium diary done.
