REEEEERRRRE - April 9, 2018, 11:04 pm

UPDATE: I only deal on-site. Any other user attempting to deal with you offsite is not me!

I get AGC's daily. Would love to just get rid of them as I get them.
You will go first. Let's do business! ?

I will update stock as I get them.

TOS: I offer a service in which payment is thru AGC (this is how I get these cards). Sometimes people chargeback on these cards, just like with any other business. I can't control whether or not they chargeback. Because of this, I would suggest redeeming the cards as soon as I send. I will not refund you the money if cards get locked.

I want to give everyone some information. There is an open deal dispute on me. It's not legitimate, but I thought everyone should be aware.

There is someone who has first dibs on the AGC that I am offering, just let him now about the dispute. If he wants to op-out, then the agc are fair game to first call.
