Hey all,

I've been out of the scene for awhile now and I see that the general S4S groups (Krave, ChingChang) are dead so I thought about starting one. This will be a Skype group so please leave your Skype username below or PM me, be sure to include the amount of views you have and proof of it. As to what I can offer as the admin, I am a long standing member of Krave's S4S group (the oldest known one) and I've been in the Snapchat scene since 2014, I can provide a lot of help and tips, and occasionally share snapchat packs that I have of.

Please fill in the following format:

Code Skype Username:

Views:

Proof of Views:

I also may need your Snapchat username for proof.

Whats the number of views you are expecting?

I've gotten 3.5k+ on my personal (not ewhore) account before. Al thought with this new update it has dropped down to 1.6-2.2k depending on the content i post. I would love to join this group but would want to work with other entertainers and comedians.

Skype Username: Evilval777

Views: never under 1.5k

Proof of Views:
