CLOSED. NO LONGER SELLING TO NEW CUSTOMERS.

OLD CUSTOMERS YOUR ORDER ARE BEING FULFILLED/HAVE BEEN FULFILLED!

MAY CONSIDER REOPENING FOR A HIGHER PRICE.

Pressa - April 16, 2018, 7:28 pm

I'd advise anyone to use a mm and wait to see the check mark before letting the seller have any access to funds, due to this being a high used niche to scam, and hardly anyone able to do it. Include proof op or clearly state you will not touch the funds till they get verified

Never said anything about rep don't get too defensive. Said that clearly if you know this works and they're getting what the paid for aka a check mark.

Let the wait to receive it.

I already see the "Oh your channel didn't work it didnt meet the requirements" or another excuse coming after someone pays and waits the duration

Are you kidding me? The sales trashing get the fuck out of here lmao.

If his account doesn't get verified in 5 days, he'll get a FULL refund. I've done this shit before bro.

Asileux - April 16, 2018, 11:57 pm

I'd be interested. However, I need to see actual proof and what is required from us? It wont get pulled back will it?

Update ASAP You get verified,as i am also interested.

This METHOD is LEGIT. All I require from you is your account URL (YouTube URL), must have videos, can't be breaking YT Guildlines. As long as the channel is active it'll work, as I've said it's JUST a disclaimer. Doesn't actually mean it'll happen just Incase it does it's been stated. I offer a COMPLETE FULL refund if your account isn't verified.
