Thread: Scammed By BlueShark™ 200\$ \(UID: 1066842\)

Mostafa - April 17, 2018, 2:32 am i was scammed by this user BlueShark™ for 200$ BTC.

Description

so i contacted him regarding a spoofing server he seemed sure that he knew his shit. but this retard gave me a vps instead of dedicated server i paid 200$ for a vps lol. i thought i wont be scammed by him due to his high reputation but alas this was not the case. this user scammed me and never provided me a working spoofing server. i never got what i paid for. ill let the screenshots do the talking. AND I GOT A NEG REP WHEN I POSTED THE DISPUTE EARLIER IT WAS POSITIVE UNTIL MY MOUTH WAS SHUT LMAO.

Spoof Report

<http://prntscr.com/j6c6hl> (details recieved on email from his site)

Proofs:

(200$ BTC PAID)

(LOL he even had gutts to send a spoofing report that said spoofing was blocked)

Did you look at the amount of scam reports this guy has? I mean I haven't looked at them so they might have been resolved but still I think it says something about dealing with him.

Sorry for you being scammed, but that guy has few scam reports open already, sadly the high rep doesn't mean that someone is to be trusted since even if you scam HF doesn't ban the scammers as all deals are done at your own risk.

Also you should use spoiler tags, it takes a while to scroll down through all your screenshots.

Hello Guys, This is to inform you that we had a negotiation on the skype regarding this dispute and we both have solved this already. he is banned right now because of harassing on the deal dispute. Proof:

Proof of dispute close:

He gave me word that he will close this dispute once his account reactive again. Peace!

hello guys, i paid for a dedicated spoofing server 200$ and i am settling for something else because Blueshark wont refund the money at all. at that point i tried to offer him 150$ refund to me. he could keep the 50$ but he still wouldnt agree. having no option left i have to agree for a botnet setup for 12 months with some bots and a windows VPS server for 1 MONTH. im really dissapointed but there is not much i could do.

Spoofing servers are not easy to find now a days. Do not trust everyone, and why would you pay $200 upfront without testing!

Always use a middleman. People who cannot efford whmcs are not worthy of receiving payments whatever the rep maybe.
