Thread: 139 LVL CLASH OF CLANS TH10 K40 Q40 + LVL 10 CLAN | OLD ACCOUNT

.Bus - April 17, 2018, 2:11 pm

I remembered that I have my super old CoC account left after I noticed someone selling his around here, so why not try and make some money out of it? Not sure if these really sell on HF, most likely on other game acc oriented forums.

I have the OG email and the account has been in my possession since 2013 if I remember correctly. Town hall 10, clan is empty level 10, King and Queen both maxed lvl 40, has a 543 gems, 5 year old cake, some Christmas trees, no name change available etc.

Feel free to offer your own price, looking at the internet the price seems to be about what +80$ not including the clan.

I'll accept ETH/BTC payments of 50$

Still available, unfortunately all previous deals were not finished.

Still selling if someone is still playing this game or wants to resell for profit.

Just saying buying this account removes any possible chance towards creativity in actually making the base! granted this is a level 139 but that would've had value if this was 2013...also this is pretty hard to sell > my proof the thread!

Then buy it. can't afford it? take out some credit? this should be a great deal. good price? Easy resale value.

On a serious note we all know you're his friend and all but why stoop soo low to defend him?
