Description

So i was looking for a coder that could scrape items from a website and put them up on mine, i paid 110$ upfront in ETH.

He never completed the work and told that he would refund me and kept saying that for weeks.

The reason I trusted him was that he owned a company in Denmark and I got all his info. To prove he owned it he even changed the desc of their company IG to say moneytalk, but sadly i didn't screen that.

Proof

I have a alot more HF pms, Skype msg and telegram, will add more proof if needed to clear things up.

Anyway, do not deal with this user for now.

Yeah, I hope this gets resolved.

He sent me a msg on telegram today saying:

"Could we please work on this together?"

Then just went offline. I gave him some weeks to pay me back but looks like he won't atm.

Still not resolved.... prob wont get a refund from this scammer

Inopia - May 7, 2018, 4:16 pm

Sorry for keeping you waiting - but I am still waiting for you to report back on the email part.

I see that the payment is still waiting for you to accept it. If you would like to send me your ETH address again, I'll have the funds in your hands ASAP.

Sending again over PM. This scam report is up until you refund me

Sorry to bring up this old thread. But I'm guessing you didn't get your money back yet.
I'm from Denmark myself, if you need me to check up any information regarding him or his company please let me know.
