hmm, okay well first thing you want to look at is page load, cause gawd damn are these some long load times.

Okay, now that the sites loaded, I can finally browse. It looks nice and all but it doesn't really look revolutionary to me. Good luck on the project though, best of luck with it :)

Eccy - April 20, 2018, 5:10 pm

Can see this going far, good luck man

aggh465ddd - April 20, 2018, 5:12 pm

Judge Judy - April 22, 2018, 2:46 am

I'm not sure why anybody would want to buy a fortnite account considering it's all cosmetic anyway, but good luck with sales, somebody has to do it and I'm sure it'll make you some sweet sweet money.

WRISTBRR - April 23, 2018, 11:45 pm

We now have a new design! There will be theme mark ups every now and then, and our logo is being created now!

WRISTBRR - April 25, 2018, 12:19 pm

Shorta - April 25, 2018, 5:04 pm

The design is very poor and bad, would suggest to get something much more modern and minimalistic

And discard the whole dark look

I appreciate it!

I had a modern theme beforehand but majority of fortnite players are minors, so I went with a more "custom" styled theme rather than a modern theme. I might add an optional modern theme to sellers, but that's for the future lexydon57 - April 26, 2018, 2:37 am i LOVE FORTNITE SO MUCH,ONE OF THE BEST PC GAMES I EVER PLAYED

It's just as it is right now, I could see people being turned off by it, it just looks like a basic forum with a weird custom advertisement.

But best of luck with the website, really nice domain.

pagent - April 26, 2018, 10:12 am forum looks good and useful gl

Definitely opened my eyes a bit more on it. I can see where you're coming from.

Will see what I can work on to make it more professional and modern, yet still attractive to the Fortnite community

WRISTBRR - April 27, 2018, 6:23 pm

We are in need of sellers! Come sell and buy with us!

Chertoff - April 27, 2018, 10:00 pm

Talking about the design, I don't really like it much. The banners seems like adverts instead which stack up the whole website.

However from Fortnite community, I think you might gain some attention.

WRISTBRR - April 29, 2018, 7:52 pm

Thank you! So far, we're listening to all suggestions and making them LIVE. Edited the style of the theme from dark > light. Obviously still be worked on, however, everything is functional!

We now have a light and dark theme (light default)
