Thread: What's something stupid you've done?

Tree of Life - April 21, 2018, 10:20 am

I lost my wallet, looked fucking everywhere for it with no luck, so I ordered a new drivers license, a new visa debit card etc. A month or two later, I found the wallet in my room the corner of my room hidden under something. I was like "are you fucking serious.." because I remember thoroughly checking that area, or so I thought lol.

A while after that, I lost my new wallet with all the replacement cards etc I ordered, but somehow still had my drivers license in my pocket.

Two months ago I lost my phone when I went out to Sydney.

I need to stop getting so fucked up when I go out lol

tldr; i'm retarded and always lose my shit

rip

What stupid thing have you done?

2073436 - April 21, 2018, 10:22 am

that's not really stupid though losing something doesn't make you stupid. That stuff can happen to the smartest luke - April 21, 2018, 10:23 am

Went around my house for like 1/2 an hour looking for my phone but it was just in my hand.

It's a real flaw of mine. I deem it stupidity in my situation since It's happened so many times, and I don't learn.

And other times, I get way too fucked up and lose my shit. That's stupid lol

I brought chocolate milk up to my room and left it on my floor with a tiny bit of milk still at the bottom, let it sit there for 2-3 weeks because I was so lazy and yesterday cause of the heat it somehow leaked into my carpet and now it smells awful so I had to go out and get baking soda/candles to fix the damn smell.

I've done plenty more stupid things, but that is just the most recent one.

I did this with my shaker bottle.

Had a protein shake one day after the gym, forgot to clean it out, picked it up the next week and smells like shit.

I've done similar shit like that, not with milk, but with just dinner plates or empty cups that had juice or water in them. Lazy as fuck then I finally decide to take it downstairs to wash and I'm thinking to myself "what the fuck" ?

I use to drive a van which had a metal caging type thing to separate the front seats from the back, and I had the keys in the front, and I got into the back to get something and the sliding door closed and the child lock was on, so I couldn't open the doors from the inside. I was in the car park at the beach and had to yell out too an old lady, who firstly just walked straight passed me even though she stopped and looked at me, then an hour later she came back so I was yelling out to her again, and she came and let me out, and said she thought I was joking.

I was in the back of the van for like 2 and a half hours.

Fuck my life lol

Losing my phone three times in one night.

I was in a club and lost it - went to one of the bars and they had it turned in.
Didn't want to lose it again so I put it on the DJ decks (I knew the DJ) and 10 minutes later thought I lost it again so I freaked out.

So I thought I would give it to my friend to make sure I didn't lose it. Yep 10 minutes later I pat my pockets and freak out thinking I've lost it again.

Never felt so retarded in my life. I wasn't even that wrecked either.

Then I threw my phone in the toilet. Lucky as I am it still works.

But I wasn't really cool tho. Because I pissed before I threw the phone in the water. And it wouldn't really be a smart move to flush the toilet lol that's shit ?

stolen lol

I've done a lot of stupid things. I can't go in to detail about much but down at the beach mates and I used to blow things up all the time. Homemade gunpowder is the shit

I've also climbed around a lot of extremely unstable cliffs. Rewarding af though because I find drones and heaps of old stuff up there

Wow, how have you not been caught yet :o

I kinda regret not participating in that sale, hopefully goes up again next 4/20 so I can get a few.
