Thread: [Scammed by BulletVest.Net \[UID=2492457\] and \[UID=3528593\]](#)

SIM-3817662 - April 22, 2018, 4:46 am

Hello community,

I would like to report that bulletvest.net has stolen my website design along with a logo designed by me and all texts. He basically copied my hosting website.

User profile link: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2492457>

User profile link2: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3528593>

Thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5656578>

My website address: <https://bullhost.co>

Address of website which has copied and stolen from me: <http://bulletvest.net>

DENIZ - April 22, 2018, 4:49 am

Lol, funny is that the guy wrote "BULLEVEST" instead of "BULLETVEST" on his webpage

Meow - April 22, 2018, 4:50 am

LOL wtf, it's literally the same website. Can you prove you made your website before his or something?

Spoiler (Click to View)

Maybe it's a theme or something ?

SIM-3817662 - April 22, 2018, 4:57 am

It's based on a template, however the logo is created by me, everything what is written on the website is written by me, etc.

I literally changed a lot of things and he just copied everything directly from me. Even on the slider on the main page he has the same pictures in the same order. :)

Please compare footer/header on my website <http://bullhost.co> and on <http://bulletvest.net>.

Please compare <https://bullhost.co/datacenter.html> vs <https://bulletvest.net/datacenter.html>

Please compare as well "Plans of our services" on the main page - two bigger and two smaller tables - exactly as on my website.

Please compare logo in the header.

Please check this (!!!) <https://bulletvest.net/about.html> - here's even a name of my company, because he forgot to change!

Etc, etc..

It's obvious that he copied everything from my website.

After creating this thread, a guy who is advertising bulletvest.net in many threads made a bad reputation to me:

Abou Wadi3 (152) - Last updated Less than 1 minute ago

Negative (-3): Deal with extreme caution

Isn't that totally weird that people who has stolen my website now after reporting that, are giving me bad repo in revenge?

While it sucks to hear that someone has stolen your website design speaking about reputation in general is not a good idea. It sucks and it happens daily but just deal with it. ?

DelziumTheProudWhale_temp - April 22, 2018, 2:10 pm

well, i dont think this belongs in this section nor that this is a scam report however pretty pathetic when someone does this

Well it's not only stealing a website design. It's as well copying a hosting company.

Such unprofessional behaviour though.

I'm sure that Omni is going to take a look on the case and decide what to do about it.

really unprofessional.

Pretty sure staff don't get involved in deal disputes.

Oh yeah, that was true. Just forgot it for a moment ?

jeremy.ratte - April 23, 2018, 12:04 am

I would like to inform everyone interested in this topic that my account (jeremyratte) has been banned for one month because I asked Staff for their support.

Before doing this I was told by HF Mentor to create this thread and then ask Staff to block/remove user/thread responsible for stealing/copying my website/logo/texts/concept.

The issue was caused probably because you posted in Deal Disputes section. You did not have a deal with him, you had to post your thread in Marketplace Discussions instead.

jeremy.ratte - April 23, 2018, 2:17 am

Let's face it... I reported a guy who has stolen/forged my goods. In result of that I have been banned for a month (!) and it's all because while being in a hurry and stressed out I posted a thread in a bad section.

In the same time this fraud (there's no other name for that kind of person) has enabled sticky thread at Hosting Services and is advertising his services.

No, it's not even close to be fair.

It's shitty but there's not much you can do unless you copyright your logo.

jeremy.ratte - April 23, 2018, 2:36 am

It's not about copyrights, it's about rules on this forum. It's about punishing cheaters, closing their accounts and threads.

It's triple shitty, because for example when I once did a mistake by deleting and adding a post again in my company thread, the thread had been permanently locked in.

But when someone is stealing and forging work of other users, the Staff won't do anything about it. And when I create a thread to complain for being cheated - I'm being punished.

Really, guys? Is this how it works on this forum?

PS. I would lovely move the thread to the correct section of this forum, however I'm unable to do it due to having banned account.

yes this is how this forum works

jeremy.ratte - April 23, 2018, 10:21 am

To be honest, I'm still counting on resolving this issue in correct and honorable way.

Maybe some of you people could inform the Administrator about this thread and ask for intervention?

I have blocked account, from this temporary one I can't even write a PM. For now - thank you all for your support.

Omniscient - April 23, 2018, 10:48 am

This doesn't belong in Deal Disputes and so it's moved to Marketplace Discussions.

I lifted your ban but changed it to a 3 month signature suspension. Eagle is right to take action when you PM him a DD link. Don't ever do that.

As for the member BulletVest, he got a very strongly worded PM from me. I'm giving him 24 hours to change his site or he will have a closed account. I just ain't going to stand for his bullshit.

<https://hackforums.net/reputation.php?uid=2492457> He's a low quality member with a ton of warnings on his account too. He'll never be Ub3r here and I believe I'll close his account eventually because asshole like him eventually get closed.

He's buying stickies advertising his services and site and so that draws my attention when he's breaking another members copyright in the process.

SIM-3817662 - April 23, 2018, 12:07 pm

Thank you Omniscient for resolving this whole situation. You are fair Administrator.

They quickly changed their website after your intervention.

I only hope that in the near future those cheaters - BulletVest and Abou Wadi3 - will get banned permanently.

Thanks again.

SIM-3817662 - May 2, 2018, 2:56 am

I'd like to inform that the second user reported before for stealing my website - Abou Wadi3 (uid=3528593) is still messing up with me by decreasing rating on my product thread.

To be honest, it's completely mind-boggling for me, that user involved in stealing things from other HF users, have still Ub3r privileges and can still messing up here.

Ludicolo - May 2, 2018, 4:05 am

Just move on and stop complaining, to be honest.

SIM-3817662 - May 2, 2018, 4:32 am

To be honest, don't write in this thread if you have nothing valuable to add. Thanks.

Supak - May 2, 2018, 4:35 am

Just close the thread and get over it.. Its just a thread rating.

SIM-3817662 - May 2, 2018, 4:42 am

Easy. I'm only leaving a note here for their potential future clients. Let them know that they are dealing with cheaters.
