Thread: Fader magazine covers.

Wake - April 22, 2018, 3:18 pm

Recently been getting back Into Photoshop after a long break and decided to create some magazine covers.

Something I have always enjoyed Is seeing something I like by another artist and trying to recreate It and seeing how close I can get to the actual piece.

I created some Fader magazines and put some Popular rappers on the covers. I know these are In no way hard to create but I appreciate any constructive criticism.

I like that you keep it simple and clean! Good job!

This can absolutely be used by a company for sure.

Simple and clean, just the way it should be.

Very good magazine covers

These are nice, maybe some more color corrections to blend the colors more?

Great potential.

Thanks I am terrible at colour corrections I tried on those but as you can see they did not go to plan.

Thanks for the feedback.

Looks clean, it can have color or texture to the season or background as well.
