Vouch for rebel, he answered all of my questions quickly. My tracking came about three days later, and the glasses arrived about a week later. In total, about 10 days from start to finish, which I think is fine. The glasses are definitely genuine, and I will definitely be using this service in the future.

Thanks

So it took OP 2-3 days to finally reply to my PM and he accepted to use a MM.

I then asked him if he was able to do custom Ray-Bans aswell.

On the website there is an option to make your own colours etc.

I had a model in mind (which I actually tried on in store this weekend) but then he said he could also do custom ones.

So I wanted to go back to the store today to try the model one before spending $150 (it's still a lot of money).

Then he told me I was a time waster (after he kept me waiting for 3 days for a reply).

Yeah sure dude, you're just trying to find excuses not to use a MM.

Really sad. I advise anyone who wants to deal with this guy to use a MM only. There is something sketchy about him.
