Description

So this user is a serial scammer and a Multi accounter, in the past he used the name Coca1na to scam and defraud his victims.

He now created a new account on Hackforums where he is back to do the same scams again and make some money, I would advise everyone to not deal with him.

This post is a warning for everyone.

Sad to see this, but I doubt the validity of this. I recently purchased a few RDP's off of him with no problem at all

A scammer has to built trust, not saying he is a scammer but your argument doesn't really prove anything ?

Yup, and he already started scamming people..

Okay it looks like he got banned for multi accounting or he either closed his account :P

Do you have the link to the profiles for YODA and Pink?

I will try to get them both banned.
