He contact me on skype (I was on one of his skype group and also on his forums) for a quick $50 BTC deal.

This right here is proof that his account was not "hacked" as I said "don't fuck me again" he know what I meant. Last time he send couple of buck to little. Again. He even said he will send more this transaction. "haha I will make up for last time".

The user seems to be Exit Scamming/Sold his account. I advise anyone to DWC when dealing with this user.

He also scammed me $50 as well.

Very good point. Regardless hes a scamming fuck and he just got what was coming from multiple people at once lol

Gen1e - April 28, 2018, 10:30 am

Probably carded. I remember from skype group he like to show his money. I really doubt he make that kind of money with ewhoring. And if he needs to scam people, I guess he is even worse carder.

ev4si0n - April 28, 2018, 10:31 am

Floes too, his "right" hand, watch out, got kicked too when I called them out for carding

I'm creating a new Skype, please send me a PM on HF and I will reply with my new contact information to solve this with you.

I'm very sorry that this happend to you under my name.

Gen1e - May 14, 2018, 6:25 am

Why are you still allowed to be here?

I know it was you on Skype. So no need to play victim here.

Rawrin - May 14, 2018, 6:34 am

Yo waddup bro. Sorry to hear that you got scammed bro. Next time I hope you will have learned your lesson by then and take better precautions. Always do a search on the member you're about to do a deal with and look for any scam reports in the past. You gotta always check the rep for scam reports bro. Good luck.

ToeCrusher - May 14, 2018, 6:37 am
