"This is the only method on HF I'd buy to be honest" -- Crystallize

(May 24, 2018 06:11 PM)Crystallize. Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) OP gave me a vouch copy and this is my review about this amazing method!

Writing

The writing is perfect, it has almost 60 pages explaining ins and outs of the method.
If I were to rate it I'd give the writing a 10/10

Details

This method is awesome and OP explains everything in details from getting your starting to getting your first sales, this is the only method I came across so far that has everything explained in details even the slightest parts. You'll never find a detailed guide like this one! This is the only method on HF I'd buy to be honest.

It took me one read to understand everything about the method because it's very well explained and this is a method that you will never see anywhere, it's smart and can have a 99.9% success rate if you really put work on it. If you are looking to make real money, LOOK NO FURTHER!

What's good about method is that it is not saturated at ALL. You can just join and earn money, easy as that! All you need is time to read the method carefully and understanding how it works. After that you're all setup and ready to start earning!

Time investing is required because this method might replace your actual job so you will need a lot of time to deal with the clients you will be getting and you need to be swift with your clients questions.

People might ask: Is the method worth the money my answer to that is that Pronouncer is giving this cheaper than it should be. This is a goldmine if you really put effort. So its worth every single penny. I'd suggest to buyers that to spend at least 2 to 3 hours to learn the ins and outs from the method before proceeding further as you will need to know everything when client asks questions. But don't worry the method got that covered. ?

Again if I were to rate the details I'd give a 10/10
"I have never seen a setup like this before" -- CBD'

(May 2, 2018 09:14 AM)@CBD Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Okay, so I received a copy from OP. I have read through it thoroughly and it is very detailed. I have never seen a setup like this before, and from innitally reading it, you could make a lot of money with this. The key factor in this method is you will need to have confidence in order to gain clients. This means leaving your house.

For the right people, I could even imagine they could obtain their clients online, its all about the approach you take. But the guide does include everything needed to get setup. It goes in depth on nearly every page of setting every bit up. I just want to add this is not a get quick rich scheme. You are going to have to put the effort in. But if you do, I can see no problem at all with you making money. I was initially going to purchase this with a Middle Man, but I now understand why that might not be the best way to go about this - as it all depends on the effort you put in. If you are going to put in a lot of effort, I could see you making a lot. This method is not for lazy fucks.
"quality content found in this product is incredible" --Supak'

(May 2, 2018 11:58 PM)Supak Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) VOUCH FOR PRONOUNCER!

First of all, the quality content found in this product is incredible! I was surprised to find out the e-book itself was so well written. The e-book is already 30 pages but only half way done. Pronouncer is working alot to finish up this e-book. It is fully written with content preparing you for a large income if you have the willpower to use it properly. As Pronouncer already mentioned, this package is not a "get rich over night" product, sweat needs to be produced and hours needs to be invested to succeed. But eventually 90% will achieve the desired aim or result with this. Even though the product makes it extremely hard for you to fail... it still comes down to what you do with all this quality!

I wouldn't hesitate to buy this product. The price could be a little spicy for some, but personally i think its worth it. I hope Pronouncer shut down sales soon, i dont want the market to be saturated.?

" Itâ€™s astounding to how professional the setup he provides is" --Chief'

(May 4, 2018 11:10 AM)Chief. Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) So I had purchased this from Pronouncer and here is my review.

So far it has been a great experience! He spent the majority of his time with me last night, I think it was about 3 am his time till 8am his time. Poor guy lost a lot of sleep working with me, which I can't say I have ever experienced with a different HF sellers. He was able to answer all of my questions)even the stupid ones) and get me started on the right track.

The book is currently at 38 pages and he tells me its still far from finished. He also included that he will be doing lifetime updates and giving everyone with the google docs access to see it. It's astounding to how professional the setup he provides is. The layout of the document is very clean and easy to navigate and understand. It includes things that any business should have, but most don't. I don't really know what else to say other than it's a great product and worth the $200 I spent on it, looking forward to my first client will update you when I get there!

" I'm currently sitting at a $1300 bankroll" --Nadir'

(May 1, 2018 07:02 PM)Nadir Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I have had so many PM's recently asking me what I think of Pronouncer's method

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5831115>

, these range from:

"Is it worth the money",

"Have you made any money at all"

"How is his support"

"How much work have you put in"

"How hard is it to follow"

So I have decided to write a detailed review of his product, answering all the questions to the people who have asked me along with those who have tried to get me to leak the method. The first thing I would like to touch on is readability.

Pronouncer's guide has over 30 pages at this moment, and I am aware that it is not finished and is still undergoing development. Keep in mind, however, even though it's not finished it does cover the startup portion. It took me quite a while to read the entire book as it does have a lot of contents, and its clearly visible by the notes he has in brackets on the page more is being added to the sections that are already with us clients. The book's pages are full of text, in fact, I can only think of one page that is near empty and that is because it states that he will set up this section for us. His contents page contains over 30 different things that he will cover. To be quite honest I am beyond surprised that anyone on this forum has been able to produce something of this quality it seems like something done by a professional. This is by far the best guide I have said. I will refrain from calling this an EBook as most are taught over a call if you decide to ask him like I have. He spent over 5 hours in numerous calls with me and it is by far the best experience I have had with any seller. I feel like that's a detailed enough introduction, I will begin to cover the questions I stated above.

"Is it worth the money"

To simply answer the question, yes I can wholeheartedly stand behind my purchase and tell you it was one of the best purchases I have made. I was extremely skeptical to purchase if I am, to be honest, I have heard a lot and have had experiences with HF products being not of good quality to politely put it. I took the risk and for me, it has paid off amazingly. The $200 price tag to me is worth the information that he provided me and the time he spent with me. I have already made back my money.

"Have you made any money at all?"

As I had previously said in the paragraph above, I have already made back my money. In Fact, I have made over 5x my money at this moment in time. I started with a $200 investment for his mentorship and I'm currently sitting at a $1300 bankroll. It is incredible how much money you can make if you actually put the work that's required in.

"How is his support"

His support has been nothing but excellent up until now. There is nothing to fault, spent hours with me guided me through setup, in fact, did most for me. There is nothing else to say.

"How much work have you put in"

This part has always confused me, how do you expect to find a magical method online that will require no work at all. I have considered this to be my job, and have already outdone my previous job paycheck. I spent a good few hours on the last few days working and it has paid off in my eyes.

"How hard is it to follow"

The guide is extremely easy to follow. I did come across one part that I found confusing, so I hopped into a direct call with Pronouncer and in under 5 minutes I mastered what I was confused about. Other than that one part I would say a kid could make money using the guide and Pronouncer's mentorship.

That's all for my review I will leave you with a few payments I have received in the last few days.

I was very skeptical when I saw OP refuse the $500 Middleman deal, but seeing the reviews that other people posted, I can understand why he did not want to use a MM. I decided to spend the money and take the risk, and so far it has been worth it. Pronouncer has been working with me for the past couple hours, and finally has me all setup. He has been quick with replies, and answered any question I have had so far.

I personally have not seen anything go into this much detail before. I can only see part of the written documentation as its not finished yet, but its coming in at over 30 pages full of written information.

I am talking to pronouncer right now in terms of doing my setup and i will keep you more updated as things progress. Honestly this is the best $200 i have spent. I already have my backend live and am on my way to getting a client right now.

Thanks for this best purchase of my life.

A full thick 60 pages of actual USEFUL information. I am in the same business and this product has even helped me with years of experience in the same field. It is basically all the information I wish I had when I first started making money online, especially with all the tips and links to the best providers for businesses are PHENOMENAL. why do people vouch for a service they haven't used themselves? Also, I don't think it makes sense to sell this for $200. If this is something that makes $45k a year then selling the method would be worth way more than $200. Something fishy.

Does this have to do with social media services in any way?

Are you outsourcing services online locally to people?

What are the profit margins?

Online, Local and in person.

Profit is made aslong as you have a single client. I cant go into detail on what is and isnt involved, there are aspects of everything within this including selling stuff etc but nothing that will cost the person i setup for money

Is this about offering Google Adwords or FB traffic etc, so you drive leads to local businesses for a monthly retainer + advertising fees?

Call me paranoid, but the guy who bought from you - you gave him his first rep, a day after he joined. You also state you will investigate the user for 1-2 hours to see if they will succeed in the market, but he comes back 30 minutes later and says its good.

I tell you what, if you let a MM hold the funds until i receive my first payment, I'll pay $500 for this. $500 is nothing, especially since I can make it back within a week, right? Let me know, I got the money ready right now.

i saw him on a post with on HF and was his first rep kek. I have numerous customers that i am handling, and i wont wait and spend hours of my time setting things up to wait for you to earn money. If you check my given rep you will see i rep a bunch of new members its nothing new. I got a welcome rep and its a warm welcome ?

Well the first buyer is already earning and surely you won't mind waiting considering you're making an extra $300 on top of the original price. Let me know. Because it sounds fishy as fuck not going to lie. I make a good amount of money and would I fuck sell for 200 bucks. No one in the right mind would sell this for that price unless its a scam.

Let me know though as we can use minimalist as a middleman. Would also help put other people at ease.

Unfortunately, i decline the $500 and wait offer. The fact i will have to spend 5-8 hours with you to guide you through everything unpaid is what stops me. I am more than happy to use a middleman up to the setup point but waiting for you to make money to recieve my payment is a whole other thing. I am currently managing over 5 Customers and that took most of my time across the last 4 days. Adding one in Unpaid and taking time from them i cant do. If you do not feel comfortable entrusting me, thats fair enough but those are my Terms. At this moment all my customers are happy and on their way to making money. (Two have have made their investment back already). If you wish to discuss further please proceed and Pm me

Also the 1-2 Hours part is an Exaduration. I got in a Voice call with the OP like i have with most my clients and those who i didnt sell to, this way i could get a feel for the user and tell them they wont be right for it ETC. I can even show you PM's of me declining sales ?

its not "unpaid", they've paid an MM. This reply makes this look very risky... no reason not to take x2.5 what you're asking if you wait until he gets his first sale(s).

Now someone else claims they have bought the method, now this person just created his account and also has his first rep by Pronouncer as i guess he got it after he "bought the method".

Now you say you have declined plenty of people, but why would you sell to someone with 0 rep that just registered on HF.

It's really fishy tbh.

Kinda weird, just throwing my 2 cents.

When i decline sales its because i feel that the user wont do well in the market or that they are a bother to work with. He got his first rep because he bought from me and then i purchased something from him, you can ask staff to geo IP us and confirm its not me. Ive been speaking to him, he is from UP north where as im from london also i agreed to using a middle man with Tom cruise actually, its that i needed the money and no one was online with that amount of stock. Ive done numerous 500-1k Deals with Neat and staid's service its just not everyhting is posted ?

Okay, so I received a copy from OP. I have read through it thoroughly and it is very detailed. I have never seen a setup like this before, and from initially reading it, you could make a lot of money with this. The key factor in this method is you will need to have confidence in order to gain clients. This means leaving your house.

For the right people, I could even imagine they could obtain their clients online, its all about the approach you take. But the guide does include everything needed to get setup. It goes in depth on nearly every page of setting every bit up. I just want to add this is not a get quick rich scheme. You are going to have to put the effort in. But if you do, I can see no problem at all with you making money. I was initially going to purchase this with a Middle Man, but I now understand why that might not be the best way to go about this - as it all depends on the effort you put in. If you are going to put in a lot of effort, I could see you making a lot. This method is not for lazy fucks.

VOUCH FOR PRONOUNCER!

First of all, the quality content found in this product is incredible! I was surprised to find out the e-book itself was so well written. The e-book is already 30 pages but only half way done. Pronouncer is working alot to finish up this e-book. It is fully written with content preparing you for a large income if you have the willpower to use it properly. As Pronouncer already mentioned, this package is not a "get rich over night" product, sweat needs to be produced and hours needs to be invested to succeed. But eventually 90% will achieve the desired aim or result with this. Even though the product makes it extremely hard for you to fail... it still comes down to what you do with all this quality!

I wouldn't hesitate to buy this product. The price could be a little spicy for some, but personally i think its worth it. I hope Pronouncer shut down sales soon, i dont want the market to be saturated.?

So I had purchased this from Pronouncer and here is my review.

So far it has been a great experience! He spent the majority of his time with me last night, I think it was about 3 am his time till 8am his time. Poor guy lost a lot of sleep working with me, which I can't say I have ever experienced with a different HF sellers. He was able to answer all of my questions)even the stupid ones) and get me started on the right track.

The book is currently at 38 pages and he tells me its still far from finished. He also included that he will be doing lifetime updates and giving everyone with the google docs access to see it. It's astounding to how professional the setup he provides is. The layout of the document is very clean and easy to navigate and understand. It includes things that any business should have, but most don't. I don't really know what else to say other than it's a great product and worth the $200 I spent on it, looking forward to my first client will update you when I get there!

(May 4, 2018 03:37 PM)Man vs. Wild Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) So I've been on HF since 2009 that's around nine years and I've seen my share of money making methods go through this website...

There have been a couple that have successfully managed to help me make some extra income on the side, however, nothing that would be enough to live off of.

At the beginning of my experience on HF and the few scams, I have lived through from similar guys I was very skeptical towards this method.

Well, right now after reading through it and starting to apply it I must admit all of those fears and insecurities about being ripped off once again have pretty much disappeared.

The truth of the matter is that this method contains very valuable knowledge which will not only help me earn some extra income but give me the opportunity to make more than enough cash to live quite the comfortable life with.

The method currently has more than 30 pages and explains in great detail every single step required in order to successfully implement the strategy and start generating income. The support I have been receiving from Pronouncer has been phenomenal as well! He is there every step of the way and dedicates as much time as possible to me until I understand how to get through and resolve the issue that I am having.

The only requirement in the whole system is that you dedicate your own time to achieving the final goal of reaching financial independence. Being consistent, and motivated with the never give up attitude assures you success.

The plan is extremely easy to follow and nothing like what I've seen so far around on HF.

Just remember guys, every failure is just a step closer to success!
Thank you so so much for the vouch bud, glad i can help you

Second kid registered 2 days ago and already bought the method + vouched on this kids MM thread?

If this kid isnt banned in 2018 ill kms

Yep, pretty similar to what i posted earlier. Sorry Pronouncer but this seems to be something a bit fishy or not worth the price tag.

I have some question:

1. My english very bad, i can't hear english, i can't speak english. Only using google translate for type and understand,
So did it work for me ?

2. Im in asia.
So did it work for me ?

3. Did i need talk with customer or anything ??

1. You can have asain clients
2. yes
3. Yes but over text

One question - at the beginning of the thread you mentioned that you have to go out to get clients but later said that you deal with customers over text. Is it possible to perform this method strictly online and how much does this limit the potential results?

I've got this method and to be honest its pretty decent. I've not yet purchased a mentoring method on hackforums until now and I am very pleased with the customer service that I have received from the OP. The guide that I was given has 35 pages full of in depth content. It is definitely worth the money that I spent on this ebook.

I was Temporarily banned, and was Unable to answer any questions or Recieve PM's, i do apologise for the inconvenience. I am also unable to update the thread with new information due to the edit limit so i would like to say this.

I sincerely apologise for the delay some of my clients have faced in terms of me updating the guide, i have still been offering them 1-1 Support over Communication APP's and am continueing to do so. The book was at 38 Pages, and is currently standing in development at 60 Pages, i still have quite a bit to add and will only take the sales off the Pre-Order stage once it reaches over 100+ Pages of content.

I do want to apologise to my clients for the delay, if you are interested in the cause of the delay i will be more than happy to explain to you all over PM's

Anyway nice product glws.

A user posted that and you instantly reply with how many slots you have open ignoring the alleged fake vouch that you got someone to market for you. Not sure why you are so desperate for sales if you are making 16k a month.

Anyway im in no way trying to sales trash, but im just raising concerns. I know the good youve done the community but alot of this is fishy. Ive gone through almost each page of this post and haevnt really seen any vaulable reviews. Vyrez all over again lol
