User did icons for me 100% like I asked him to.

quick and beautiful designs, would not hesitate to deal with again

DARPA - April 30, 2018, 8:09 pm

OP is fucking good. Like I mean I know graphic designers IRL who cost five times as more for nearly half the quality of this art. Generally he throws in extra helpful stuff, like he made me up a transparent png file that helped me out HEAPS that I didn't even ask for. I am strongly considering getting a YouTube done up when my website is complete. Vouch for this User he is 100% legit.

The Red Skull - April 30, 2018, 8:48 pm

OP has done all my graphics work in the past few months. I can say with 100% confidence that he is the best on HF, and certainly the best I've ever contracted to do work for me. Very nice guy, who goes above and beyond with his customer service. His graphics and design work is amazing, and he'll be sure to make sure you have something for your brand that he would personally approve of. He's my go to guy for any work I need done

Breakbot - May 1, 2018, 4:13 am

I do the threads in Adobe Illustrator, and crop them in Photoshop.

If animated then it will be two files, an Illustrator file and an After Effects file, which i can provide to the buyer.

I usually don't re-use the same design so it's not a problem if you have it, once you buy it it's yours forever.

I would not consider going to anyone else because he is trust worthy, extremely talented, will work with you on every little detail you want, allowed me to pay after I seen a preview of the product. Arctic Wolf - May 22, 2018, 11:22 am

In the last 7 years that I've been on Hackforums, I've had many occasions to engage the services of

'graphic designers'. I've come to discover that while many people claim to be 'graphic designers', 'graphic artists', 'digital designers' etc., very few can deliver the goods. They either have an abundance of creativity but don't have the technical skill to execute their / your vision, or they have all the skill in the world but are sorely lacking in imagination.

Then, there's XanPa. I had the good fortune to discover his thread and after tearing through it at least three times and being increasingly impressed with her portfolio each time, I decided to contact him.

Right from the beginning I realized that XanPa was different. Instinctually, He seemed to truly understand the most important thing that all the others before her had missed. He listened to me. Rather than trying to tell me my vision before I had even finished explaining it to Him, he listened. Asked a few questions, and then listened some more. At that point I knew that if she would take me on as a client, that she would design everything I would need for many years to come.

If you were to ask anyone who knows me they would tell you that I am a perfectionist with OCD tendencies. I am a 'tweaker' and 'tinkerer' by nature. If something is good, I want to make it better. If something is really good, I want to make it excellent. If something is excellent.....well you get the idea. Anyway, after very few revisions (by my standards), XanPa delivered a direct marketing piece that was the epitome of what I envisioned. He then went on to design a website that in my opinion is a digital work of art, combining aesthetics and functionality in a very uncomplicated manner.

On the second direct marketing piece, XanPa nailed the concept after only one revision! Again, if you knew me you would see how astounding that actually is.

From a practical standpoint, just imagine how much time, effort and money could be saved on your projects if the designer could capture EXACTLY what it is you want after only ONE revision! It means increased productivity and lower costs!....A pretty good combination in my books!

XanPa is extremely reliable and professional and delivered every concept on time, every time, without fail.

I will leave you with this thought to mull over while you're trying to decide whether or not your search for a designer is over. If you can envision it and articulate it, XanPa can create it. Period. I guarantee it. I don't care what it is or how complicated you think it is, if you can explain it, he can do it.

Trust me, you're finished looking for the designer for your next project. It's XanPa. Give him a message, you won't be sorry.

thales - May 22, 2018, 2:24 pm

Hands down best experience I've ever had with a designer.

Incredibly fast (designed 5 website pages + a logo in under 2 days), very high-quality work, with incredible pricing. Everything he has made has been spot on with my descriptions/layout sketches as well as my expectations being exceeded. Will definitely be ordering future graphics work through XanPa and would not hesitate to deal with him.

10/10 excellent experience.

Yeah thing is if i don't compress it loads too slow, it was probably me who overcompressed the GIF parts.

I will try that site once i decide to update the thread, thanks for the suggestion, Cheers!

@XanPa did a very good job with a forum revamp for me (banners, userbars, logo, etc.). He really puts effort into his work and cares about the final result. He even helped me out with the formatting on the site to make sure it looks good. He has a great creative output and knows what he's doing. His services are definitely worth it, and I would definitely recommend him to someone looking for serious and professional-level gfx work to be done. Thanks!

Just to notify everyone, the thread price isn't the same anymore as the OP post says, and it's not everyday that i take thread orders either static or animated.

The rest remain the same.

I really dig your sales thread, the animation is flawless, would probably work on the fonts though, changing serif to sans serif would suit that modern style much better. Fonts such as Futura or Helvetica would work much better in my opinion, anyways, that's up to you. Best of luck with sales!

Thank you for the constructive criticism, really appreciate that.

I was going to use Gilroy or Nutmeg before i ended up chosing the Slab one you see now.

I might update the thread again soon, and this time i'll make sure to use a sans serif.
