I'll take a vouch copy if you have any, either way vouch for Baked will leave a review if i get a copy

Edit:

Pronouncer's Full Product Review

I was handed a copy as a vouch by the seller Baked. I will proceed with an Unbiased review, I am in no way affiliated with the user neither am I in a partnership with him.

I would like to take this moment to thank the user for the product and entrusting me with writing this review. Let's go to the main topics.

Contents: 9/10

I have decided to give this book an overall 9/10 For its contents.

The book has over 10 pages covering numerous spreading methods that are sure to work.

He has a page that I really do believe will be beneficial to all the new users who want to get into spreading, and will future their spreading career.

He has included 4 Detailed spreading methods, to which I don't see any reason why they would not work.

Grammar: 10/10

I am no expert when it comes to Grammar and Spelling but over my thorough read, I did not see a single spelling or grammatical error.

Easyness To Read: 10/10

In fact, the book was extremely easy to read and can recommend it to those, whose English is not their primary language.

It is extremely easy to read not to mention how aesthetically pleasing the guide is to look at. I had to ask OP how he designed this guide and it's quite ingenious.

Overall: 9/10

Overall I would like to give this guide a 9/10 its almost perfect and get my full seal of approval.

It's an amazing guide, very detailed and easy to read. There are detailed instructions that will help everyone out, and I'm sure the user will provide great support seeing as he answered my PM's almost instantly.

I definitely do vouch for this and would recommend it to all. Thank you for taking the time to read my Vouch.

Arctic Wolf - May 1, 2018, 1:25 pm

Vouch for Elite Spreading, extremely detailed and easy to follow. There are multiple spreading methods, each one I have never seen or even thought of before. Each step is extremely detailed and easy to follow. I would definitely recommend it to anyone that needs to spread their server!

Hope it'll solve this problem.

Have a nice day :)

Hello :)

Can you answer me on my question? :) (Your method is youtube torrent or ewhore ?)

Mr. Sultan - May 18, 2018, 4:51 am

Vouch for Stoned, he showed me some of the methods and they are truly insane!

Dezinator - May 18, 2018, 8:33 pm

By far not what I expected after asking him some Questions. If you bought some Spreading Guides before you wont get much more Information about Spreading then before. Most of the "Methods" are already public. If you got some experience with spreading ask him some good Questions about spreading Methods before you buy.

Just my 2 Cents..

Hello mates, I have a habit of giving my opinion when I buy a product.

I have purchased the premium package.

The tutorial consists of several methods, the most effective require investment and time to give results, you must also be creative.

None of the methods seemed new or different from my experience.

Yup :) Just click on the thread, follow the contract steps. Once the contract is open just click on the autobuy button and it will lead you to an option where you can pay with crypto or paypal ?
