Judge Judy - May 2, 2018, 7:47 am

Not my type of music, but the sound quality is good at least. Can't really judge the rest considering I don't listen to rap music. (Except for Queen Nicki of course.)

The quality is good and you sound well. Like if you had the fame and whatever needed you would probably be crazy big.

Keep up the good work, you are talented.

PrepareU - May 5, 2018, 11:29 am

Not joking, this doesn't really do under from most mainstream rappers right now. The only things you're missing are the right connections I guess.

Liked both songs aswell, keep grinding man hard work pays off ?
