Anyone got their nipple pierced? Saw a video of someone having it done and they squealed like a pig, wanted my girl to get it done since it's pretty hot on girls, but she saw the video and changed her mind lmao

Judge Judy - May 3, 2018, 6:38 am

Well I've seen a video of it done and it's not a pretty sight, it's even less fun when it gets stuck on your clothes and you almost rip your nipple off. Which tends to happen quite a bit since you're not always aware of it.

There's better areas to get piercings, xoxo.

yeah my friends tells about it and how painful it is

TBE ClockWork - May 3, 2018, 8:28 am

I agree with is being sexy on girls, but from what I've been told it's extremely painful so it all depends on if your girl wants that lol Like others have said there are a lot better places for a piercing.

She should get it if she's that kinky. That shit will turn her on when you play and lick her nipples. trust me lol

Nachfolger - May 3, 2018, 8:32 am

I got my dick pierced once but then it got infected and I had to have some of it cut off.

Dont let this happen to you, just skip the piercing bro.

RedCupcake - May 3, 2018, 8:34 am

Yes, i have them. They do not hurt at least they didn't for me.. But they sometimes increase a womans pleasure if they like their nipples played/licked. It's a huge turn on for yourself too because personally I think they make me look sexy.

Nothing in essence, but every procedure carries some risk. Do you want your girlfriend to only have one nipple? Not so sexy then!

I'd imagine the kinda boney part would hurt a lot more

NLSProductions - May 3, 2018, 11:21 am

I have had both of mine pierced twice and at the time you think its cool but eventually you get sick of it.

The first I had it done they froze them but the second time I told them I wanted it without the freeze. The piercing doesn't really hurt that much really and I would say about the same as sticking a 21g needle into a group of nerves (which is probably close enough). But it does tingle for a few days later. However, the real pain is when you keep catching them while putting on and taking off your top and they rip and bleed. I got sick of them in the end and removed them and would not go back.

Hope this helps

It doesn't sound offensive at all lmao, if you get offended by gay jokes you need to check your priorities. And that wasn't even a gay joke, so yeah.

Just don't call me a faggot, only I get to call myself a faggot. ?

And yeah don't get any piercings down there either, same risk and well... ten times the agony.

Errmm unfortunately we get tit molested every year by our doctors. If she does want them done but is uncomfortable with a male piercer look for a female.

Ouch, that's pretty bad.

I guess they can fix that though nowadays, with cosmetic surgery? Or at least make it look less... weird? I don't know how to put it.

Hopefully people born like that are born in a country with free (cosmetic-y) health care.

Sometimes it's covered if it's very upsetting to the person, it really depends on the country though. Over where I live you're going to have to show it's stopping you from living your life to the full extent, but I think you could get it done by saying you can't go to the beach with your friends or something similar.
