Thread: Scammed by Mon£y \(TOP SELLER\) for \$130 \(UID 123689\)

RianWorks - May 7, 2018, 2:41 am

Scammer profile link: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=123689>

His thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5321276>

Story:

On May 4th i bought the $130 package of his Exploit Builder and paid with bitcoins

Paymt TX link:

<https://www.blocktrail.com/BTC/tx/edf510f1f87ecc48b54b259587e9c8f0e0c8ace049804ad0c6a45f4735a0925b>

Email received after payment completion: <https://prnt.sc/jeq3d1>

I followed the instruction after downloading the serial generator as seen here:

<https://prnt.sc/jeq7le>

<https://prnt.sc/jeq7pd>

I Pm'ed him (as instructed) with the data to download and activate the Exploit Builder as seen here:

<https://prnt.sc/jeq8pp>

He never replied and his "Last Visit" status in his profile link is hidden.

I never received the product i bought and if you look at the last three pages of his sales thread i am not the only one.

This needs to stop, i do NOT care how much rep he has got or that he is considered a top seller or not... he steals money from HF member.

He can also not be emailed, his email box is full:

You have not been scammed yet.

Here is the thing;

He will send you the product so be patient a little.

The problem you will encounter is that the product will never be FUD and it will never bypass any Antivirus on runtime. When you complain he will stop replying to your PMs and emails. When you write on his thread, he will ban your license and say you violated his TOS.

Later he will say you're not even his customer. So either way, you fucked up.

I'm sure you read all the complains on his thread but you felt we were just wasting our time. I'm happy for you bro, you just stuffed 130$ up your ass.

This is the scam report I opened about him. Same thing I complained about is what you'll face too.

I am sorry he received money from you to without delivering a working product....

I do not agree that i have not been scammed yet though.

I have... i bought a product, waited for a long enough time and did not recieve it.

If he hasn't got the time to manage it anymore he should stop selling it (read: taking money from people when he can deliver on time or at all).

He has been scamming people long enough now so he should be neg repped and get this over with, once for all.

Chaval - May 7, 2018, 5:45 pm

I bought it a while ago from him and he replies to every email however it hasn't been working for me at all (the builder)

CraftyBot - May 7, 2018, 6:01 pm

Honestly, you just need to calm down a bit and attempt to get in contact with him whether that be through Email or PMs. Instead of making a complaint thread like this you should've commented on his thread. It's you're fault if he blacklist you since you made a Deal-Dispute for being impatient and barely trying to get in contact with him.

I DID try to get in contact with him using PM and email. Bottom line is, if you take money from people, provide a service, if you don't, your a scammer.... PERIOD.

Stop protecting people here just because they have a top seller status or a lot of rep, i paid $130 and did not receive anything and he does not reply to PM -> i was scammed out of $130. Not hard to understand. If you read his thread, i am not the only one by the way.

Covalent - May 7, 2018, 6:20 pm

Yeah I had problems with him too, He made me jump through hoops to get. I waited 2 weeks to get the product from him. Everytime I did what he told me to do to get it, it was always 1 more step away.

You realize that the "Top Seller" sales tag is something that you can buy along with many other tags and stickies for that particular thread? It's not a vouch or guarantee that he's a top seller.

do not pay attention to CraftyBot that is another fucking scammer.

I will post the evidence of what I say about this scammer with screenshots when I do not have the 50 msg limitation.

CraftyBot are the least able to comment on these issues, because you are another scammer.

When you said the builder isn't working for you, can you explain? It isnt opening or your builds arent FUD?

Sometimes I wonder why people like you feel too lazy to read before making certain stupid statements. If you check OP post, you will notice that he has written on the seller's thread more than once before making this report.

Also if you read his report, you will notice that he also PMed the seller. So please SHUT UP before telling him to do what he has done already.

The only thing you can tell him to do is to be patient. He has every right to complain, it's his money and he did not receive what he paid for.

After I make the infected.doc and trying running it I don't connect but if I just run the normal infected.exe I will.

The "Top Seller" tag should be changed/removed imo, it really does look like hackforums is vouching for that seller, I never even knew you could purchase them.

I don't necessarily agree with it, but at least it's not as in others forums where you can buy everything for just your thread to stand out from title colors, fonts etc.

New people seem to be baited by everything, the CE scammers and ebooks love em, since new unknowing people are probably their only revenue stream

Might write an E-Book on how to avoid getting fucked on hackforums lmao

That would be pretty ironic since the advice "Don't buy e-books" would be near the top of the list

He still did not deliver the product and neg repped me...

How long is HF going to support this thief?

So this is how it goes here these days? Scammers get supported openly by HF? No neg rep for thieves who steal money?

Read how to properly file a Deal Dispute, scroll down to the bottom and you will find "Scammer Reputations" linked thread, go and read it. Omni has clearly taken his stance against this many years ago.

People do what they want with their own apples, if they want to neg someone, then they will do it without you trying to beg for it. Welcome to the internet.

MonEy is an asshole who scammed a lot members here. His office exploit & silent miner both are NON-WORKING shits.

He should be banned!
