Thread: Personal Mentorship - \$8,000+/monthly in passive income

Minus9 - May 7, 2018, 8:10 am

4 students have been signed. One spot left. (Price raise soon!)

For the past year I've studied and researched Amazon FBA. For those who are unaware of what Amazon FBA (Fulfilled by Amazon) is, Amazon offers a service where you can send products to their warehouses and sell directly on their website. For any sale you get, Amazon will send it directly to the buyer with free shipping (if the buyer has Prime). After gaining enough experience and having several successful products, I'd like to offer my mentorship here on HF.

With this mentorship, you will be learning: How to do product research and find successful products.

Secrets and tips.

How to effectively dominate a market.

How to dominate all competitors, differentiation and the importance of psychology.

And more.

I want to be clear that I will not be doing all the work for you. Selling on Amazon is infinitely scalable, making 6-7 figures per month is definitely possible with the right amount of time and consistency. I will be providing you the information and the tools to learn what you need to know and do the work yourself. By purchasing my mentorship, I will be walking you through the entire process from doing product research, getting your 1st product publicly for sale, and then I will continue my support for 30 days after your product goes live. From there, you will have amassed enough knowledge to continue your store on your own without my help.

I will be charging $500 for this service. The reason why the price may seem "high" is because for one, I only want to help those who are serious about committing to something like this. Secondly, the information you gain from this mentorship can literally begin a lifelong career for you, something that can replace your current job or give you the kind of job you've always wanted. You will be your own boss, this is not some simple moneymaking method to make a quick buck.

There is a mentorship spot for few individuals. The price is low for now but will be raised in the future.

contacted me regarding Amazon FBA. I went for it and we literally went from $0 to $8K+ revenue within the first month. Now we're steady at around $2.5k revenue a week, again this is only with 1 product and we just started.

Here's an example of one of our better days:

The $500 is well worth it compared to any other Amazon course you could buy. I worked with him directly each day and he personally taught me everything I need to know to start expanding into multiple products. Already made my investment back that I spent on merchandise + enough profit to cover the $500 fee and still have plenty left over. You aren't just buying a shitty course and being left on your own, it's a one on one mentorship that gives you the knowledge to be able to start a career from.

Any proof of any of your claims?
Or you just really good at googling?

My student has been with me for about 35-45 days now. He's doing $2k-2.5k weekly now.

You can do this from any country. If you have bank details you need translated, just get a certified translation. It doesn't take long to setup at all. At maximum 1 week.

Running out of stock so raising the price significantly hence the lower sales these days. Hoping to be a $10k/month soon.

You mentioned having to ship your products to Amazon, how much investment is required?

It really depends on the product which I will go through with my students. Personally we had success with about $1.2-1.5k investment. You should not start with less than $800.

Neil - May 7, 2018, 10:44 am

Taking a chance with this mentorship and bought it. Will be seeing how this goes within the next few weeks and will be sure to keep you guys updated on the thread.

Welcome to the mentorship program. You'll be making good money under my wing.

A spot has been taken, few limited spots left.

wit - May 7, 2018, 6:30 pm

so $1k investment, $500 to enroll?

I will definitely do this after bootcamp...but idk if you'd hold a spot for me for that long.

nicbtc - May 7, 2018, 7:11 pm

Hi!

In the image you can see the total profit, but how much did you invest to achieve that number?
Can it be done outside of the US?

Regards!

In my country you need GST Tax documents for e-commerce business which alone take 15-30days

This was with about $1100-1200 and I am continuing to invest into it like better pictures etc.

Investments really depends on the products we'll find but correct.

I've already signed a student and about 3 others have contacted me to purchase. I'm able to do a reservation as long as you pay in advance otherwise I cannot. (Also depends on when 'after bootcamp' is, I might have to decline.)

Contact me by sending me your Skype and we'll have a little consultation.

Interesting. I don't know what country you're from so probably different regulations.

That's the great thing about Amazon, you can live anywhere in the world and still sell in the US since you never touch any of the products.

Minus9 - May 9, 2018, 9:32 am

Three students has signed in the first 24 hours. Will possibly raise the price soon and close after one or two more students.

Welcome to the mentorship program to Neil, iTrust and Crowning.

Price will be raised to $1000 soon and closing as well. Make sure to get in before so. Amazon is more a long-term game than short-term when it comes to scalability and sustainability.

Looks like a really good method, and people have lots of results, there's a lot to learn so I'm gonna take my time with this and do it all right. Thanks -Purchased

Not at all. I don't live in the US nor have a US bank account. If you're in another country with another currency, they send you the money in your own currency without any problems.

NOTE: ONE SPOT LEFT.

iNuke - May 10, 2018, 4:38 am

Okay so let's be realistic. I'd need $500 for the mentorship, and then $800-1200 for investments, right? And then, how long would it take? How many hours per day should we dedicate to this?

Thank you!

Thank you!In the beginning, it's going to take a bit. I'm not saying you have to constantly spend time researching for this (You can if you want to), but you can also do it during your free time as well. I bought a few days ago and am still researching (Mainly due to me having finals). Once you finish the research, you can begin the steps needed to start the method. After the method starts, it is mainly auto pilot.

Thank you man for your reply! ? This is interesting.

Another point is that the 'budget' depends on the product. Some products will require a much higher budget and some lower. I personally recommend starting on a lower-budget product and when you get a steady income from that, move on to bigger products and scale it. I have several friends making around $100k a month from this by slowly scaling it and understanding it. My role in this is to help you not choose bad products and help.

The time also relies on how long it takes for research which is different from person to person and also the communication in two ends which my students know about.

Good luck.

DuelPit - May 10, 2018, 6:16 am

Wish I had the money to invest into this, good luck with sales!

Minus9 - May 10, 2018, 8:20 am

Welcome to Phenomenal as a student.

Neil - May 10, 2018, 8:23 am

Here's an update on how it's going for me so far. Exhibitionist has been working with me and helping me get started for a few days now. It took some time and deep searching, but I think have finally found a product that would be good to sell. We are currently undergoing the next steps, and the estimated profit for the product I have found is anywhere between $2500 -> $5500 a month (Depending on sales). Exhibitionist has been very helpful and is teaching me many ways on how to make sales in a faster way and a more timely manner. The $500 or even $1000 you spend to buy mentorship is almost nothing compared to what you can make.

I had my doubts in the beginning, I'm not going to lie, but those doubts are beginning to go away and I am starting to see dollar signs everywhere, haha.

Crowning - June 13, 2018, 8:13 am

Been with Exhibitionist for a little over a month now, didn't even realize it! First I'll like to start off by saying this, I thought he was going to stop responding somewhere in the middle, and I'll be stuck with a lost $500 and no guidance for Amazon FBA. Exhibitionist literally helped me so much, I used to get extremely frustrated when I would research for a product 4-5 hours every day, just to have him say its "alright, keep researching". I, however, didn't give up and went on, TODAY I finally found a product that is anywhere from $7000-$10000, and he called it a "goldmine".

Exhibitionist really goes out of his way to help me too, he would track products at times I couldn't track, help me out by telling me some add-ons at times, etc. He always replies with 100% energy, never being lousy or anything.

It has been an amazing journey, and I'm about to see some dollar signs soon enough!

This is what this mentorship is about, to not make you make mistakes that will cost you thousands which usually happens to most people starting this out. I'm sure you'll hit $8-12k revenue monthly when we release the product we've been speaking about.

Minus9 - June 28, 2018, 4:31 pm

I am taking up one last mentorship spot for $500. This is the last time the price will be this. I am doing a huge launch regarding this mentorship where the price will be at least $1000-1500. (Minimum!)

I am giving a free consultation right now to answer your general questions regarding this mentorship, contact me right now and let me know.

Alright, since I don't have enough posts to contact your privately I'll post my questions here instead. I hope that is okay. What amount of time has your students spent roughly per week on this?

Do you provide us with templates of excel documents and further goodies that can expedite and ease our journey.

Could you provide me with another proof of earnings for the last 30 days since your post.

Do you have a FAQs that one can look at.

Thanks for your time.

I have some spots open for a limited time - $1000. Do not step into Amazon FBA without some guidance and end up losing several thousands of dollars, sadly a lot of people do. If you need a free consultation, contact me.

Private message me your Skype for additional information.
