Thread: DO NOT BUY THIS FORTNITE AIMBOT

SIM-3819204 - May 9, 2018, 2:15 am

Website: <https://fortniteaim.com/>

Cost: $59 in BTC (can't get a refund, that's so he can scam you)

They've already scammed many including myself. They send you a file through selly once your btc payment clears and you can't activate the bot because you need a license key. The seller doesn't have a license key. I found out he stole the exact file from another forum. The "READ ME.txt" is as follows.

In order to get this application running with all features you need a valid serial number which can be obtained from:

<http://gametrials.fr/fortnite-license-key>

The license is valid for 14 days. You can renew the license key as often as you want.

How to complete a survey:

1. Select which survey you want to complete.
2. If you don't want to put your own info, go to fakenamegenerator.com and generate your own identity + phone number
3. Put your info and make it look 100% valid.
4. If you need phone number use any number from your country phonebook or phone number from fakenamegenerator.
5. Your download will start when your done.

CAN'T COMPLETE THE SURVEY? TAKE A LOOK BELOW Survey tips

- Use information from <http://www.fakenamegenerator.com> or your genuine info.
- MANUALLY type information in, do NOT copy paste or use auto-fill feature.
- Don't rush through it, and take your time. These surveys are able to detect it.
- After the survey is completed, wait around 30 seconds up to 1 minute and BAM your download will begin!

Thank you for understanding, MarkSpenc from cs-joke.pl

Other than the READ ME file, there are two others. ext32.bin and fortnite_br_mulh_v022.exe. When you launch the .exe it requests the key and there isn't one. Once you go to the links it's just trying to get you to complete an unending series of ads. There's no where to buy a license key either. The whole thing is a scam and I want to warn anyone who reads this so you don't make the same mistake I just did. All I was able to do was contact the company that owns his website's domain requesting that it be shut down and I contacted selly requesting that his shop be shut down too and that we get reimbursed. Even if I'm not, I at least hope this asshole loses his site and selly account because he paid for 1 year on the website domain.

True, luckily for me $60 isn't much but I figured it would be worth checking out at the very least since Fortnite is free and I don't lose anything by getting an account banned. Now that I know it's not legit though, I can warn people away from this site so I'll play the guinea pig if it helps some people lol.

Using your own cash to test something out for others gets high respect in my book ?

Thanks man, appreciate it! If you know of any others I wouldn't mind trying em out. I might even find one I can go ham with and see how fast I can get banned lol. ?

Out of curiosity, why are fortnite cheats so foreign? Usually cheat developers have cheats for games that come out within a week. Just wondering.

Also no one wants to get sued either

SIM-3819204 - May 9, 2018, 9:54 pm

Yeah, apparently they're suing some 14 year old for using cheats lol. It's pretty bad. They're also fairly decent at catching it too.

I am still trying to get my first win. Hmm...

They're using BE.

Maybe there is no cheats cause they get sued or maybe cause its a shit game, probably both.

Anyway, 60$ for a lifetime cheat, no matter what game it is, that is fishy af. And its even worse when its a EAC/BE related cheat AND when you have to pay with bitcoins.

Idk in what universe you thought that it could be legit with all of those facts.

Vudran - May 10, 2018, 5:53 pm

I dont even understand guys who buy cheats

Interesting, not sure what court of law would be able to prosecute a 14 year old.. Assuming it's a civil case..

(May 9, 2018 07:17 PM)Biggy Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Out of curiosity, why are fortnite cheats so foreign? Usually cheat developers have cheats for games that come out within a week. Just wondering. they are not foreign, it is just nobody is selling them publicly because of lawsuits.

Also i can speak out of experience that it is hard to keep up with certain updates, it takes time to RE and re-code parts of your cheat.

And people who sell publicly have to deal with leakers, crackers, people who rage and get banned claiming it is detected etc etc.

Hence the reason we keep it to friends and close friends from them and keep staying undetected for several months now.

It requires a lot of work, knowledge and dedication to keep a fortnite cheat up and running.

Therefore nobody should pay for a publicly sold fortnite cheat or others who claim to sell it for under 100$ a month/lifetime because it is either based on a public source, scam or detected soon.

Be smart because you either get scammed, ratted or buying a detected cheat. ?

SBB7 - August 2, 2018, 6:52 pm

Fortnite will try to sue you even if you were streaming the cheat and went big they try to hide the evidence that there are cheats for their games

DO3K 9KND 5KDR NF53

This key works, but asks to download the activator and put it in your bootloader. Then directed to the google.com

I hacked the program. Can't upload a screenshot, you can try this key

I've already reverse engineered the file you can download from cs-joke.pl. It's just a simple C# program that's offering you two surveys in return for nothing. Amazing!

They did a pretty good job on their website. They have probably atleast some people doing the surveys every day getting them some money.
