KIK is still working really good mate. You still need the right source, but when you have the right customers then you still need your SE skills or techniques, because without any knowledge you won't make anything.

Newbie here. I made 60$ in a couple of hours on [BRAND NAME REMOVED], then got banned. Bio was "buy my nudes, and take me to diner". for the kik method, where do you guys pull traffic from? Instagram? it looks like the hashtags are HEAVILY censored. Feel free to PM

Yeah the thing is that most of the guys complaining here just do the same copy and paste shit on the same websites everyone does and expect to make money off that.
