Thank you for registering at HackForums please take a moment to read our Help Documents:

<https://hackforums.net/misc.php?action=help&hid=21>

Since my method is not related to anything listed above you can literally fuck off.

Just because I'm not selling you my method as you're trying to guess my method like a little freak doesn't mean you have the right to open a community alert on me.

You said you're doing Bank Transfers, carding, phishing , spamming and whatever just to find out if I'm selling one of the above. You a no one, keep trying to find someone selling you a XBL Gold you Profi carder lol

There is no HF middleman, anyone can open a MM service here, and since I don't trust anyone here I won't hand them out my money. Anyone can say "method not working I want money back" so how should a middleman that has no clue about the method decide? Useless to talk with you. You're retarded, go ahead and play XBox kid.

PS: forgot you got scammed for 20$ XBL Gold. Need gold? I know a 1337 Elite Profi carder:

This is so stupid lol. I don't see anything in that conversation that indicates that he's scamming or breaking HF rules.

Sure it would be nice if he was willing to use a MM but there is no rule he has to. If you want to use a MM and he says no just move on to a different seller
